WAR BULLETIN

CAIRO, June 25 (U.P.) — The British eighth army, aided by heavy American and British bomber attacks, was reported working furiously to make a stand in defense of Mersa Matruh tonight after a slashing 65-mile axis penetration of Egypt.

U.S. MOVES FOR SECOND FRONT

LABOR PARTY TO BACK CHURCHILL IN DEFEAT PROBE

LONDON, June 25 (U.P.) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill, assured of solid Labor party support, will accept a vote on the most hostile of five issues of commons motions at a two day full dress debate next week on the Libya defeat, it was indicated today.

The parliamentary Labor party, at a caucus, decided to oppose the motion and support Churchill.

Sir John Wardlaw-Milne, Conservative, laid down the motion today with 20 supporting signatures:

"That this house, while paying tribute to the heroism and endurance of the armed forces of the crown in circumstances of exceptional difficulty, has no confidence in the central direction of the war."

Aimed at Churchill

It was aimed at the prime minister in his capacity as minister of defense.

As soon as it had been laid down, for action in the debate, Sir Stafford Cripps, leader of the house, announced that the debate on Libya and Mediterranean operations would take place at the second and third days of the next sittings of commons.

Cripps declined to say that the prime minister himself would be back for the debate but told the house:

"It is hoped the prime minister will be present when the Libyan debate occurs, and I hope that the prime minister will speak."

Cripps said the issue would be fought out in the open, and that it was not proposed to make any part of the debate secret on the plea of military necessity.

Four Motions Hostile

Five motions in all, four of them hostile, will await Churchill when

TAX BILL SHORT OF INCOME GOAL

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP) — A new tax bill designed to yield $5,924,000,000 additional revenue was completed by the house ways and means committee today with most of the administration's major recommendations crumpled in the wastebasket.

The treasury had asked for $8,700,000,000—to help finance the war and to combat inflation by reducing the public's spending power. In fact, President Roosevelt had suggested definite limitations through taxes on the income of individuals and corporations.

As the committee completed the study it began March 3, it reversed a previous decision and defeated still another recommendation of Secretary Morgenthau—that married persons be required to file joint income tax returns.

Heavy Total

Federal taxes other than those imposed by the new bill are expected by the treasury to yield $10,500,000,000 for the next fiscal year. On top of this $22,424,000,000 total, the taxpayers would be assessed another $2,000,000,000 in increased social security levies if administration recommendations are adopted.

Although the bill was about $2,800,000,000 short of the treasury's goal, the measure did not impose a general tax, advocated by many committee members but opposed by the President and Morgenthau on the ground it would fall disproportionately on low-income groups

While the committee's decisions are subject to review later when the hundreds of pages of technical language are finally prepared, it was expected the house might pass the bill and send it to the senate by July 20.

Personal Taxes Heavier

It lowered personal exemptions for individuals from $1,500 to $1,200 in the case of a married man, raised the normal tax from four to six per cent and boosted the lowest surtax rate from six to 12 per cent. To help collect this estimated $3,000,000,000 increase in individual taxes, the committee adopted a treasury proposal to collect part of most persons' taxes by payroll deductions, starting in January.

Excise taxes on such things as train fares, cigarettes, whiskey and telephone tolls were increased, and some new excises levied.

RAF Bombs Nazi Submarine Base

LONDON, June 24 (U.P.)—Royal air force bombers again blasted the nazi submarine base at St. Nazaire on the French coast during the night while home defense forces were destroying five German planes raiding England.

London's anti-aircraft guns roared for the first time in weeks, and startled pedestrians scuttled to shelter. But they fired only a few rounds, and what apparently was a lone raider didn't break London's 18-month freedom from bombs.

The Germans bombed points in the midlands, and coastal areas of East Anglia, causing some damage

Swim for Lives After Atlantic Convoy Ship Sunk

With the navy's announcement that it has been convoying Atlantic coastal shipping for nearly a month comes this picture of eight crew members of a U. S. collier sunk by an enemy mine. A speedy rescue ship saved the men from the Atlantic's chilly waters. Only three out of 47 crew members were lost in the ship's sinking—testimony enough to the advantages of coastal convoying.

Army Gives O. K. to Tank Operation Here For "Sheffield" Day

Climaxing plans for one of the busiest days in Twin Falls for many years, U. S. army permission was granted this afternoon for actual operation of the M-3 tank on city streets Friday.

The army okay means that the 14-ton steel monster will be seen in action—instead of aboard a razor-back—when Johnny Sheffield, boy movie star and "son of Tarzan," stages his whirlwind one-day campaign to boost war bond and stamp sales in Magic Valley.

War department permission for operation of the tank carried one proviso, it was announced by Robert H. Warner, general chairman of the day. Gov. Chase A. Clark, official chief of the state of Idaho, must ride in the tank. Since the governor has announced he will come to Twin Falls for the Friday mid-day civic luncheon honoring young Sheffield, that regulation can be met.

Operated by Sergeants

The tank will be operated by the two army sergeants who accompany the Sheffield party, local committeemen were advised.

Highlights of the Friday program include Sheffield's appearances throughout the downtown district, three public merchandise auctions, sale of stamps by Sheffield at financial institutions, his appearance at a children's auction of stamps and autographed stamp albums, parade at 11:30 a. m. the combined civic luncheon at the Park hotel, and Sheffield's stamp-bond auction at Radio Rondevoo to climax the day at 9:30 p. m.

Travelling under auspices of the treasury department and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Sheffield will be brought to Twin Falls under arrangements completed through the Paramount theater chain by Mrs. Breck Pagin, Orpheum-Idaho manager.

Administrator Coming

Two additional honor guests at the civic luncheon were announced today by committeemen handling that event. John R. Viley, state administrator of the war savings staff, will come to Twin Falls with high-ranking member of the state bond-stamp organization.

MAN AND WOMAN ROB STORE HERE

Police today were searching for a man and woman who, late last night, entered the Home market, 600 Main north, and took cash and checks from W. Henry Larson, the store owner, at the point of a gun.

Chief of Police Howard Gillette reported today that the robbery took place about 10:30 p. m. just as Larson was preparing to close the store for the day. The owner had just placed $15 in cash, and also some checks, in a money bag and had put the bag on the counter when a man and woman entered.

Pulls Revolver

The man, the owner told police, asked for a carton of cigarettes. Larson obtained it and after the man received it he whipped out a small caliber revolver and demanded the money bag, which was turned over to him. Larson pleaded with the man, asking that the checks in the bag be returned but he was ordered by the man and woman to lie down on the floor, face down. He did this and the man and woman left the store. A few minutes later Larson telephoned the police.

Larson said that shortly before the stickup he had observed an old model car, with lights burning, parked at the side of the store. The car was gone after the man and woman left. He did not hear the car start, however.

Man About 28

Larson told police that the man was about 28 years old, five feet 10 or 11 inches tall, slender and would weigh about 150 pounds. He was dark complexioned. He had on a brown sport coat or jacket but did

Tension Grows in Argentina As Mob Stones Nazi Embassy

BUENOS AIRES, June 25 (U.P.)—Mounted police armed with sabers guarded the German embassy today and agitation for a diplomatic break with the axis increased after the government announced it had protested the sinking of the Argentine freighter Rio Tercero by a German submarine.

The embassy was stoned last night by a mob protesting the attack on the ship last Monday. It was the third Argentine vessel torpedoed by axis raiders, and a navy communique said it had been sunk without warning by the German submarine Innsbruck.

Tension Mounts

Throughout Argentina tension mounted. Foreign Minister Enrique Ruiz Guinazu was summoned by the chamber of deputies for questioning on the Rio Tercero incident. Newspapers demanded prompt diplomatic action against the axis.

The situation was complicated by the resignation of pro-democratic President Roberto M. Ortiz, who had been in semi-retirement for two years. He will be succeeded by Vice-President Ramon S. Castillo, who has served as active president since Ortiz's retirement.

Ortiz resigned because of partial blindness and other ailments. He said he had retained the presidential title for two years because he was "sure I thus could hold off the danger of ideas and tendencies contrary to the traditions of Argentina."

Ortiz Sends Message

To Castillo, who has opposed an open break with the axis, Ortiz sent this message: "The differences I might have had with you over sizing up and solving domestic and diplomatic problems have never affected my high personal consideration of you."

Castillo will serve as president until Feb. 20, 1944, when the next president will be inaugurated.

Argentina and Chile are the only American nations which have not severed relations with the axis countries in accordance with the resolution approved by the conference of foreign ministers at Rio De Janeiro last January.

JAPANESE CLAIM ALEUTIAN GAINS

By The Associated Press

Imperial Tokyo headquarters asserted today that Japanese military and naval forces were widening their seizure of the U.S.-owned Aleutian islands, off the coast of Alaska, as President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill summoned the Pacific war council to discuss the Japanese threat.

A Tokyo communique said Japanese sea-borne forces occupied Kiska and Attu islands on June 7-8, and declared:

"They are at present consolidating their positions in neighboring islands."

Unconfirmed elsewhere, the Japanese claim was the first intimation that the enemy was extending its occupation of the desolate, fog-shrouded chain of islands which point like a dagger toward the heart of Japan.

A Japanese correspondent with the enemy expeditionary force asserted also that the invaders brought along large quantities of seeds and potatoes for planting, and said:

"This alone reveals that our action was not meant to be merely temporary."

The Japanese command said it had renamed Kiska as Narukami and Attu as Atsuta—the latter after the Atsuta shrine at Nagoya, one of the four great Japanese cities attacked by U. S. army bombers on April 18.

Washington quarters said President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill, Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada and members of the Pacific war council were expected to take up the situation in the Pacific northwest and particularly the Japanese menace to Alaska.

Informants said the secret Churchill-Roosevelt conferences, which started a week ago, were believed to be approaching a stage where some announcement might be forthcoming.

FLASHES of LIFE

By Associated Press

BLOW UP

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 25—Charles Harmon, 13-year-old shoeshine boy, was seated on a mid-town sidewalk bench when a 500-pound chunk of the concrete walk suddenly rose under him, popping with a pistol-like crack as it tossed boy and bench five feet into the air.

A long forgotten gasoline storage tank buried for 17 years beneath the walk had exploded.

TACTFUL

BRADFORD, Penn., June 25—Police aid radio blackout embarrassed two young women carrying several bottles of beer down a street.

When the sirens sounded, a special policeman hastily escorted them to the nearest air raid shelter—the first Methodist Episcopal church.

"I had to do it," explained the officer, "it was the only place to put them."

SLIPS DON'T COUNT

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 25—Mrs. John Phipps took a good, healthy cut with a bottle of champagne, missed, and—

The 38-ton ferry boat she was christening slipped away unchristened.

A shipyard worker, John Harvey, seized the champagne bottle from the startled Mrs. Phipps, chased the boat down the ways, and, wham! laid the bottle open against the prow just in time.

Maj. Gen. Eisenhower in London; Action Promised

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP) — Maj. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has arrived in London and taken command of the European theater for American forces, it was announced today by the war department, which defined a theater of operations as "an area where combat is in progress or will be."

Eisenhower, a native Texan and an armored force expert, went to his post in London from an assignment as chief of the operations division of the war department's general staff.

The department spokesman who defined "theater of operations" explained that such a theater usually was divided into the combat or front zone and the line of communications but added that "with air power so important there is little difference now between front and rear areas."

The brief announcement was made without reference to current speculation on the possibility of a second front in Europe.

Maj. Gen. James E. Chaney has been in command of American forces in the British isles, and officials did not disclose his new status. Maj. Gen. Russell P. Hartle remains in command of American forces in northern Ireland.

Communique Quoted

The communique, No. 229, said:

"1. European theater:

"The war department today announced the formal establishment of a European theater of operations for United States forces. Maj. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, formerly assistant chief of the war plans division, war department general staff, has been designated as commanding general, European theater, with headquarters in London, England.

"2. There is nothing to report from other areas."

In a statement by Eisenhower on his arrival in England, which the war department released, the new commander said "the formal establishment of a European theater is a logical step in coordinating the efforts of Great Britain and the United States."

People Heartened

"Six months ago the prime minister of Great Britain and the President of the United States heartened the people of the United Nations by moving swiftly to merge the military and economic strength of Britain and the United States for a common effort," Eisenhower said.

"At that Washington conference they set a more effective pattern for unqualified partnership than has

Nazis Gain Ground At Great Costs on Kharkov Battleline

MOSCOW, June 25 (U.P.)—German tank, infantry and air assaults gained ground "at enormous cost" on the Kharkov front and forced back the Russian defenders on the northern sector of the Sevastopol battlefield, the army newspaper Red Star said today.

Masses of enemy tanks supported by aerial squadrons continued a four-day offensive on one sector of the Kharkov front, the dispatch said.

The Russians withdraw to new positions but repeatedly counter attacked and several important heights changed hands many times, the correspondent said.

"The Germans managed to advance at enormous cost," he added, while other dispatches told of slight enemy gains at Sevastopol.

Defenders Fall Back

The communist party organ Pravda said the defenders of that sector fell back only after a day of the most violent battle, and that fighting was mountingly fierce along the entire Sevastopol front, and especially on the northern and southern sectors.

Doing their utmost to widen the gap in the city's defenses, the Germans were paying a "terrific cost" in men and materials, Pravda said.

Advices to the Soviet army newspaper Red Star said, however, that because of enormous German losses, the general pressure on Sevastopol was somewhat slackened, though, in view of the enemy's numerical superiority, the intensity of the battle was undiminished.

Seizure Repulsed

"Attempts to seize the city in a three-day storm have been crushed," a message said. "Aviation, tanks and psychologic attacks by drunken German and Rumanian soldiers have been unavailing.

"The Germans have lost more than 150 tanks and hundreds of planes on the approaches of Sevastopol. The short path of the enemy is strewn with mountains of corpses of its officers and men.

"The Black sea fleet has been incessantly shelling the Germans, its air arm has been bombing and machine gunning them and some of its sailors may be helping Sevastopol's garrison.

This was the 19th day of Adolf Hitler's victory-at-any-price assault.

Nazis Smash Into Egypt; Americans Raid Supply Base

By LEON KAY

CAIRO, June 25 (U.P.)—Axis mechanized columns smashed 65 miles into northern Egypt today but met stiff resistance by British mobile units in the Sidi Barrani sector and furious aerial counter-attacks by the royal air force and American army bombers.

One of the heaviest attacks of the north African war was made by United States B-24 four-engine bombers (Liberators) and the RAF against the main axis supply base at Benghazi in an effort to break up the enemy spearheads under Field Marshal Erwin Rommel.

Allied planes also battered the enemy columns that seized the frontier forts of Sollum, Sidi Omar, and Capuzzo and pushed on to Sidi Barrani, 35 miles inside Egypt. These air attacks were designed to prevent encirclement of new British defense positions.

Military sources said that fighting—in which the Germans already have suffered "heavy" losses—was proceeding on a front swept by an extremely high wind and occasional light and storm, but that Rommel was "throwing everything" into the battle.

24 Hours to Tell

The next 24 hours, it was said, should show whether Rommel intends to attempt a flanking movement around the Sidi Barrani and perhaps the Mersa Matruh sectors in hope of enveloping the British or whether he would attempt a direct smash some 400 miles toward the Suez canal.

The German radio broadcast claims that allied reinforcements, including a United States mechanized division, were being rushed from Syria, Iraq and Iran to the Egyptian

Japanese Facing Shortage of Ships

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (U.P.) — An apparent shortage of ships has developed in Japan due to enemy sinkings and the expanding territories of the Nipponese in the southwest Pacific, Tokyo radio indicated today.

Japanese military leaders of Singapore, Sumatra and Java decided to utilize all wooden vessels in the area for complete interchange between the countries, Tokyo radio commented in a broadcast recorded by the United Press.

Shipbuilding experts are being imported from Japan and encouragement, as well as subsidies, is being given shipbuilders in the southwest occupied countries.

The radio indicated all merchant vessels of Malaya capable of long voyage had been taken over by the Japanese.

IDAHO CROPS IN GOOD CONDITION

BOISE, June 25 (AP) — Excessive moisture in some north Idaho sections damaged the grain crop and caused some lodging, but cereals generally over the state are in good condition.

Barley and wheat in early sections are beginning to head, Meteorologist H. M. Hightman said in his weekly crop and weather report.

Temperatures in the week ending June 23 still were below average but gained in south Idaho.

Showers prevailed during the spring and early summer, were light in south Idaho and many stations in the southeast reported no rain. Weekly totals in north Idaho, however, were moderate to locally heavy.

First cutting of Alfalfa continues in south Idaho with stacking underway in many localities. The crop generally is light and weedy.

Sugar beet thinning is completed in most sections. Corn is only fair to poor, Hightman said, with warmer weather badly needed.

A good crop of lettuce and early peas is being harvested and shipped in the southwest.

Cherry picking is beginning in some districts with fair to good prospects, Hightman reported. Truck crops and gardens are advancing slowly and many south Idaho bean fields had to be replanted.

Potato planting continues locally and earlier plantings look good.

Pastures and range generally are very good, the report summarized, although they are drying in the southeast.

Explosion Kills 2 Idaho Miners

SALMON, Ida., June 25 (U.P.)—Premature explosion of dynamite was blamed today for death of two miners at the General Electric mine, a tungsten development near Patterson, 70 miles south of here.

Pat Gessel, 36, and Eugelio Aguirre, about 40, both of Atlanta, Ida., were killed in the blast. Investigators reported the men entered the mine early yesterday to ignite dynamite fuses and the blast occurred shortly after. Their bodies were badly mangled.

CCC SUPPORTERS FIGHT ABOLITION

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Supporters of the civilian conservation corps rallied their forces in the senate today for a seemingly difficult task of trying to restore the relief agency's $80,818,000 appropriation.

Discontinuance of the CCC after July 1, voted by the house and upheld by the senate appropriations committee yesterday, faced strong opposition by some senators bearing administration support.

Senator Hill of Alabama, Democratic whip, declared restoration of the funds was requested by the war department, which he said was "very anxious" to see the camps' activities continued, mainly for the aid given in improving army posts, for at least another year.

Senator Taft, R., Ohio, one of those urging discontinuance of the CCC as a wartime economy measure, contended the chief purpose for its creation in 1933 was as a relief and conservation agency. Under present conditions, he added, there was no further justification for it.

Meantime, the senate also scrutinized house-approved bills appropriating $326,000,000 for the works projects administration until July 1, 1943, and $53,548,099 chiefly to supply deficiencies for the postoffice department in the current year.

The proposed WPA appropriation, a decrease of $395,000,000 from the present fund, was estimated to be sufficient for employment of 400,000 in the next 12 months. Approximately 750,000 persons were employed on WPA projects last month.

BUHL CITY BUYS $28,500 BONDS

Purchase of war bonds by the city of Buhl in the amount of $28,500, maturity value, was announced today by Mayor C. C. Voeller.

Mayor Voeller said that purchase of nine bonds, all in denomination of $1,000, was authorized by members of the city council and the funds used came from the city's sinking fund.

Heretofore money spent by the city for the bonds came to slightly over $21,000.

The maturity value of the bonds, however, is less than $8,000 in addition so far as the county's quota for June and July is concerned. If $300,000 maturity value in bonds is sold during June and July then one fifth of the county will have the right to name one of Uncle Sam's great bombers.

Senator Boosts FDR for United Nations Leader

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Designation of President Roosevelt as "supreme leader" of the United Nations' war effort was urged in the senate today to replace what Senator Ellender, D., La., termed "the apparent apathy of British military leadership."

Asserting the allies are in "a dangerous position" as a result of the fall of Tobruk, Ellender told the senate "something must be done before it is too late."

"We must designate a new leader," he asserted, "and place full decision in his hands. Such a leader must be acclaimed at once.

"We in America are carrying more and more of the brunt of this war as time goes on. Accordingly I nominate for the position of supreme leader none other than our great President, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Shooting Salmon River Attempted

BOISE, June 25 (U.P.) — Payette national forest headquarters today reported a party of five Oregon men were shooting the Middle fork of the Salmon river. — "The river of no return" — in three light boats.

The party moved off from Yellow creek, a tributary of the turbulent Middle fork, and planned to come out near Shoup where the river meets the highway after passing through the Idaho primitive area. Members of the party were Woodie Hindman and Carl Weber, both of Eugene, Ore.; Dr. H. F. Anderson and son, H. J. Anderson, jr., both of Corvallis, Ore., and Dick Deverlin, Vida, Ore. Hindman had made the trip before.

BRITAIN HOPEFUL IN EGYPT BATTLE

WASHINGTON, June 25 (U.P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told congressional leaders today that Britain feels confident she can hold Egypt against the mechanized drive of Germany's desert legions.

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Mass., told newsmen in a joint press conference with Speaker Sam Rayburn that Churchill had given the conferees considerable encouragement on the African situation despite the serious reverses this week.

Rayburn, House Majority Leader John W. McCormack, D., Mass., and other conferees agreed that the two were greatly encouraged by the presentation of the situation on the war fronts made by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in a White House conference.

Churchill explained, Rayburn said, that the British have withdrawn to defensive positions that lie across 400 miles of desert from the Suez canal.

Encouragement Offered

The legislative leaders also disclosed that the prime minister had offered encouragement on the Russian situation.

Another conferee said that Churchill had been asked some "critical questions regarding Britain's reasons for keeping the bulk of its army at home on the British isles. This conferee said that the prime minister fenced with his questioners on that point but had assured

Outlaw Strike in Steel Pipe Plant

LORAIN, O., June 25 (AP)—An unauthorized strike of 3,500 CIO unionists today shut down the war-busy pipe mills of the National Tube Co.'s plant.

The strike, first in the pipe mills of the U. S. Steel Corp., subsidiary since they were established here in 1896, resulted from wage grievances, said Thomas Tycraft, recording secretary of the CIO United Steelworkers local which represents the workers.

Another 6,500 employes in other National Tube Co. plants here remained at their jobs.

DUTCH HARBOR ATTACK CAUGHT CIVILIANS BY SURPRISE

35 LISTED DEAD AFTER BOMBINGS

SEATTLE, June 25 (AP)—In the first dramatic eyewitness report of what happened at Dutch Harbor, evacuees and seamen told upon arrival of a transport here how the Japanese air attack at 5:45 a. m. June 3 caught civilians by surprise and how the gallant gunners on their ship and ashore laid a deadly screen of anti-aircraft fire about the raiding planes.

While army and navy men manned the anti-aircraft guns, some of the ship's crew snatched up rifles and blazed away at the dive bombers.

Lifting of the military restrictions disclosed that the commander of the Dutch Harbor naval base issued a commendation for courageous duty under fire by the army transport's crew and the gunners.

32 Death Certificates Issued

How many Jap planes were downed has never been announced officially. Reports brought by the witnesses of the raids failed to clarify the point.

Mayor John W. Fletcher of Unalaska (Dutch Harbor is in Unalaska bay) said application was made for 35 death certificates after the day's bombing.

Service men aboard the ship were tight-lipped about what damage was done at the Dutch Harbor base, but several said "the damage was light —considering."

"Considering what?" interviewers pressed a ruddy-faced army corporal.

"Considering that no matter how long you've been warned and have been expecting a raid, there's bound to be some surprise when they finally do come over in force," he replied. "No matter how much stuff you toss at them, some of them are bound to get through."

Women Evacuated

Declining to identify himself, he acted as spokesman for half a dozen walking wounded. The wounded men were included among the passenger list of 24 persons from Dutch Harbor and 34 from nearby Cold bay. Seventeen women and 18 children evacuees were included.

"It was hot stuff," continued the corporal. "We were credited with knocking down 11 of their planes. Personally, I didn't see any planes fall. How many the navy got, I don't know.

"But, you know, when you're doing a job you don't have time to watch around at what the other fellow is doing. You must keep your eyes on what you're supposed to do, and do it, and you don't have time to get scared, just mad. They tried their damnedest to get this ship."

HAZELTON

Daily vacation Bible school is being conducted this week at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Deo Christopherson and baby, Rio Tinto, Nev., recently visited relatives.

E. W. Rieman was taken to Boise for further medical treatment. He has been ill for several months but is making a gradual recovery.

Mrs. S. Hopper is a medical patient at St. Valentine's hospital, Wendell.

Samuel W. Vance returned from a week at Boys' state at Pocatello.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Vance, jr., attended opening session of the V. F. W. encampment in Twin Falls to extend greetings of the American Legion and auxiliary department.

Film Star in Twin Falls

Just as big and husky as he appears in motion pictures, Lon Chaney, jr., film actor dropped into Twin Falls late yesterday afternoon. He looked the town over, bought some camera supplies and then headed northward in search of a primitive spot where tourists won't be at his elbows. (Staff Photo-Engraving)

Rustic Fellow in Twin Falls Proves to Be Lon Chaney, Jr.

By GEORGE REDMOND

He was looking curiously at the posters in the Orpheum lobby, was this "big rube in the blue polo shirt and brown slacks—who needed a shave."

Pretty Marge Harbert, theater cashier, grinned at his rustic air as the big fellow scanned the posters.

But the fellow turned out to be none other than Lon Chaney, jr., the motion picture star.

Movie Dog

And the big German police dog that barked menacingly from the extraordinarily large station wagon in front of the theater was revealed as Moose, the canine with which the son of the "man with the thousand faces" fought the vicious battle in "The Wolf Man."

It was Miss Harbert herself who discovered the big man wasn't a rube after all but Lon Chaney, jr. She had had her laugh and he was about to leave when the theater cashier caught sight of his profile. "Why, that's Lon Chaney, jr.!" she sheepishly confided to a friend and rushed into the theater to tell her boss, Breck Fagin.

The news got around as such news always gets around, a crowd soon gathered in front of the theater but left when Chaney failed to return to the station wagon within a reasonable length of time.

However, a Times-News cameraman and this reporter hunted him up in a store where he was purchasing camera supplies. Asked why he was in this part of the country, Chaney said that he was looking for a "primitive place" where he could camp and fish without having "a bunch of tourists at my elbow." He said he was going through Sun Valley "that I have heard so much about" and then up into the Lost river country.

Where's Triden, Mont.?

"Then, if I ever can find out where Triden, Mont., is, I'm going there to visit an old pal," the movie actor stated.

Asked about the dog, he said it formerly belonged to an "old watchman" at the Universal studios but after he had the fight with it in "Wolf Man," the dog "made up with me and I've had him ever since."

Chaney said he mainly was in "your nice little town" to buy some groceries after traveling from Hollywood up through Nevada and Utah. He has just finished a picture. However, "Frankenstein" is his latest before the public.

"How is he any so much larger than your father?" he was asked.

"Strangely," he replied, "the youngest son for generations in the Chaney family has been large—and I'm Lon Chaney, sr.'s youngest."

Wife With Him

Traveling with him were his wife —"just Mrs. Lon Chaney, jr."—and two girls, Margo and Ann Burchell, daughters of "my uncle's old army pal" from El Paso, Tex.

Told about Miss Harbert taking him for a "rube," Chaney said in parting: "I guess I did look like a rube looking around that theater—but did you know I didn't realize that movie houses in towns this size kept open in the afternoon."

AVG BOMBS JAP BOATS IN CHINA

CHUNGKING, June 25 (U.P.)—American volunteer group fliers, appearing for the first time in Hupeh province, destroyed three small enemy craft and disabled a Japanese gunboat in a surprise bombing raid Tuesday on enemy river concentrations south of Hankow, it was revealed today.

The official central news agency reported the Hankow raid following official disclosure that strong Chinese counterattacks have hurled back to the Japanese to the gates of Nancheng and Fuchow (Linchwan) in Kiangsi province.

Japs Threaten Airfield

A military spokesman revealed, however, that a Japanese force of 20,000 was closing in on the key allied airfield in Kiukiang in neighboring Chekiang province.

The news agency said the American fliers—engaged in a force of 31 Japanese fighter planes after dropping their bomb load on an enemy shipping. At least one enemy plane was destroyed and five probably were shot down, the dispatch said.

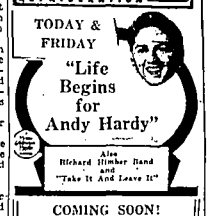

Pincer Turned Back

Hankow, the principal city of central China, is 600 miles inland on the Yangtze river.

The military spokesman said a developing Chinese offensive in Kiangsi had turned back the western arm of a Japanese pincers which had come within 50 miles of the Nanchang-Hangchow railway. The Japanese must seize this 450-mile rail line, he said, to carry out their projected construction of an overland transportation route from Shanghai to Singapore.

Transferred

MURTAUGH, June 25—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Browning have received word from Friends Browning, brother of Mr. Browning, that he has completed four months' training in aviation mechanics at Love field, Dallas, Tex., and has been transferred to Florida, where he will take advanced training in aerial engineering.

Navy to Make Women Buy Own Girdles

WASHINGTON, June 25 (U.P.)—The navy, acting like a fish out of water, retreated today from the problem of ladies' unmentionables for its women reservists and bashfully washed its hands of the whole affair.

Its women reservists, the navy declared firmly, may buy their own girdles, panties, et al, in whatever color, size or shape they desire. The navy declared with equal firmness that it sure won't do it for them.

This was in contrast to the manner in which the army handled the girdles-for-girls problem in the women's army auxiliary corps. The quartermasters took the problem in stride without missing a step.

After the senate naval affairs committee approved legislation to establish the women reserve of the navy (WRN), Rear Admiral Randall Jacobs told a press conference the navy would leave it to the girls to purchase what they want to wear "under their regulation externals." All the navy will do will be furnish the money.

The army quartermasters decided recently they would equip the WAAC with girdles—in three sizes for thin, medium and plump figure-plus, in a variety of underclothing. The army even ventured into the field of cosmetics, deciding—after long deliberation—that the WAACs would get one lotion bottle, one comb, one cream jar—and the indispensable mirror.

First Aid Classes For Raid Wardens

GOODING, June 25—Two 10-hour first aid classes for air raid wardens have been organized in Gooding. The West side wardens met in the Red Cross rooms with Mrs. W. D. Tester and Mrs. E. J. Palmer, instructors, the East side wardens met in the high school with Mrs. Maynard Hill and Nell Warrington, instructors.

A class in first air was also started at the Tuttle school for air raid wardens of that district. Nell Warrington will instruct.

William Bryan, chief of air raid warden of the county, urged all wardens to attend as a 10-hour course in first aid is a requirement for eligibility as a warden. Both classes in Gooding will meet each Monday at 9 p.m., allowing time for country wardens to attend.

Eight Killed for Anti-Jap Booklet

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (U.P.) —The Japanese-controlled Manila radio has said eight persons "found guilty of printing and distributing anti-Japanese booklets have been executed in the Philippines."

The broadcast, recorded by CBS listening station, said the eight persons were convicted at a court martial conducted by Japanese military authorities June 22.

Three others convicted of violating military laws were sentenced to long term imprisonment, the Manila radio said, warning that "other violations of this nature will be severely punished without mercy by the Japanese military authorities."

4-H Clubs Active In Murtaugh Area

MURTAUGH, June 25—Two 4-H clubs were organized at the home of Mrs. L. S. Biel. The "Elite Preservers," with Mrs. Biel as sponsor, elected Norma Heatbeck as president; Eugenia Morrison, vice-president; Beth Egbert, secretary; Francis Breeding, reporter; Ruth Shaw, song and yell leader.

Members selected as their project canning and nutrition, and the time was spent making strawberry short cake.

Miss Ada Heatbeck is leader of the "Prosperous Canners" and Maxine Rose was elected president; Gay Rose, vice-president; Ella Shaw, secretary; Inez Moline, song leader; Doris Shaw, yell leader; and Norma Jean McCarty, reporter.

Milnerettes held their regular meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Richard VanSant. Girls continued sewing and Carley Jean VanSant gave a demonstration on the bound buttonhole. Elna Bradshaw and Shirley Reinbold were in charge of the social hour and Carolyn June VanSant and Marjorie VanSant served refreshments honoring Carolyn June's birthday.

ECONOMIC DETERMINISM

The plausible fallacy of economic determinism — the theory that world wars are inevitable until the nations create a sort of communism of natural resources — is exploded pretty thoroughly by Herbert Hoover and Hugh Gibson in their new book on "The Problems of Lasting Peace."

Economic determinism is the idea — which nobody has argued more convincingly on the basis of massed facts than did Carleton Beals two years ago in Pan-America — that every great nation is entitled to own either at home or in its colonies, enough of every important raw material to make that nation completely self-sufficient.

This is the theory of the "have" and the "have not" nations. Great Britain and the United States, France and the Low countries were supposed to be the "have" nations, monopolizing the world's natural resources, controlling them through some sort of international cartels and hoarding them from the "have not" nations.

The "have nots," according to their own claims and the argument of economic determinism exponents, were Germany, Italy and Japan.

The contention is that we can't be surprised if the "have not" nations insist upon creating world wars until they have won, and retained, their fair share of these natural resources in full national ownership and under complete national control.

The idea sounds highly plausible, when a census of world raw material sources is cited in support. Unquestionably Britain and the United States, France and the Low countries did own and control the bulk of the economic wealth of the world.

But Messrs. Hoover and Hoover have gone straight to the roots of the problem, cutting sharply through the superficialities with which German propagandists and misguided economists confused the issue until the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor made words futile.

"The economic fact is," say the ex-president and his collaborator, "that there always have been and are ample raw materials available to any nation during peace if they will produce the goods to exchange for them."

Germany and Italy and Japan couldn't get enough raw materials through normal international trade because they were using what they had to make war machines, instead of producing commodities to exchange for more materials.

"The cry for 'equality in raw materials' is partly a cry that comes from a desire for assured war supplies," say Messrs. Hoover and Gibson, correctly.

If Germany, Italy and Japan desired to maintain peace, and turned their productive efforts to peace goods, and exchanged those commodities with other peoples, they could get all the raw materials they want, often below production cost.

But that is not the totalitarian goal. Dictator nations, militaristic peoples, want to create by conquest a situation in which they can go to war and possess, while at war, the raw materials to make themselves completely self-sufficient.

One goal proclaimed by the Atlantic charter is to make raw materials available to all peoples. That does not, however, mean that we propose to apportion ownership of world territory so that each great nation will hold title to an exact proportion of every important basic commodity.

"Would we consider giving copper and oil to Britain or Germany by ceding a part of Montana or of Texas?" ask Hoover and Gibson. "Are we going to claim parts of Russia or Brazil which contain manganese?"

NOW WE MAY GET FACTS

President Roosevelt's order creating the office of war information with Elmer Davis as director may be in response to wide-spread criticism of the confusion that has resulted from contradictory statements emanating from bureaus in Washington.

Bureaus brought under direct control of Davis include the office of facts and figures, office of government reports, division of information in the office of emergency management, and the foreign information service of the office of co-ordinator of information.

Davis, who is recognized as a highly capable news man, will have the responsibility of providing the American people with reliable information.

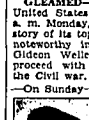

Even though his appointment may not result in any more information regarding our activities in the war, it will be a great help to American morale if what information the government does release comes anywhere near being consistent.

If Davis is given a free hand and the various bureaucrats are forced to discontinue their promiscuous blabbering, we may finally have a definite understanding of what our war effort is all about.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

GLEAMED—The reign of the battleship in the United States ended temporarily at precisely 10:30 a. m. Monday, June 15, 1942. The behind-the-scenes story of its toppling is one of the most dramatic and noteworthy in all our naval history. It matches Gideon Welles's instructions to John Ericsson to proceed with construction of the Monitor during the Civil war.

—On Sunday afternoon of the 14th, the house naval affairs Chairman Vinson lounged in his Capitol Hill office reading the accounts of our planes' role in the Coral sea action. The colonel boy from Georgia rarely cusses, but the epic written in the headlines provided inspiration. "By God," he said to a friend, "we're going to build aircraft carriers! We're going to have more than all the other nations of the world put together."

RAY TUCKER

A prophetic light gleamed in his eyes as this erstwhile apostle of the battlewagon leaped out of his chair. He picked up the telephone and notified those on his committee that they must attend without fail a special meeting on the following Tuesday.

CLOUDS—Mr. Vinson, who usually reaches his Capitol Hill office at 6:30 in the morning, noticed the navy department early Monday that he was coming down on important business. Admiral King, chief of operations, hastily summoned all members of the general board within call, and they sat around the big table with the congressman soon after breakfast.

Few demurred when, after a brief review of naval warfare as he saw it from Dunkirk to Midway, the lawmaker pressed the advisability of shunting the battleship aside for the present and concentrating on floating airfields. They did note that the day may come when the dethroned monarch may again play a decisive role on the water, and he agreed. But the upshot of the conference was that it fit his instructions they promised to frame a bill providing for the greatest aerial armada of all time. The White House, of course, concurred.

Tuesday morning, the legislative draftsmen handed Mr. Vinson an eight billion three hundred million dollar measure devoted almost entirely to making us supreme in the clouds beyond the continental borders. It was approved by the committee that same forenoon in 20 minutes. On Wednesday the rules committee gave the proposal the green light for immediate floor consideration. Ordinarily it would lie over for 24 hours before it came to a vote, which in this case would have meant passage on the next Friday. But Mr. Vinson obtained unanimous consent for a waiver of this regulation and the program was considered on Thursday. The house debated and passed it unanimously amidst bipartisan exhortations that chairman Vinson would some day be hailed as "one of our country's most foresighted statesmen."

COMPLAINTS—War production board chieftains, the nation's copper manufacturers and the latter's political friends are locked in a struggle that has been threatening ever since Pearl Harbor. In this instance only the makers of objects from the key metal are involved. But the same situation prevails in many other industries.

W.P.B. recently issued a stop order as of June 15 on processing of articles made from the metal. Immediately the men who transform the raw material into consumers' goods protested. They explained that they had invested millions of dollars in partially finished stocks and knowledge that they would lose all that utility if they were not permitted to complete their fabrication. Many warned that they would be driven to the wall unless the application of the ban were deferred for at least 90 days. They told a harrowing tale of men thrown out of work, old firms ruined and general economic dislocation in their field.

W.P.B.-era scoffed at these jeremiads. "Listen," they said, "we warned you years ago that this situation was coming. But you bought up copper as fast as you could and then put it through your machines. You wanted to make it impossible for the government to buy and distribute it into new weapons. But you're out of luck." The plant owners poured out complaints and threats to representatives and senators, and the latter have demanded revocation of the death sentence. The outcome is still in doubt.

PRICE—American railroads have come under congressional fire for their alleged over-charging of Uncle Sam in the shipment of war materials. Despite the lines' admittedly fine record since Dec. 7 and before, Capitol Hill sleuths insist on a revision of rates and classification on emergency freight. A net profit increase of 76 per cent for transcontinental lines during this year's first quarter, as compared with the same period in 1941, fortifies the argument.

The interstate commerce commission is held more blameless than the lines by house investigations committee experts who have investigated the question. The pro-railroad I.C.C. has held that army jeeps should be listed as passenger cars rather than trucks in assessment schedules. The latter type of vehicle is much greater than for the latter. The haulers also get a higher sum for carrying ordnance, on the ground that its dangerous character justifies the extra charge. But a war department shipper, who has served the government 28 years after spending 12 years in a similar capacity with the roads, testifies that he never heard of damage being caused by an explosion of high explosive, powder, etc.

Army-navy officials, who realize the service which the iron horse has performed, are not inclined to become excited over the inquiry. Like the extra one million airline miles handled by Jesse Jones's department spent for vessels being constructed for the Tampa Shipbuilding company, Inc., the so-called overpayments are regarded as the price the taxpayers must pay for winning the war in a hurry. Washington's attitude seems to be: "Money doesn't count in this battle for civilization."

COSTLY—The mounting billions which the latest army appropriation bill accumulated as it snowballed down the legislative track demonstrate that the present conflict is one of movement and revolution.

When Colonel Roosevelt first asked for preparation for the measure, he said it would propose an expenditure of 35 billion. That was almost two months ago. When it reached Capitol Hill the figure had risen to almost 70. As reports of the committee after listening to officers recently returned from abroad, it carried more than forty. As passed by the house the final total is over 62 billion dollars—the most costly single enactment in the history of any nation since the world began. And it won't be the last.

Other Points of View

SOMETHING IMMEDIATE

It perhaps is inevitable that Washington, D. C., newsmen, finding Mr. Churchill again in the White House with the shades drawn, should engage in an all-out guessing game as to the emphasis of the conversations.

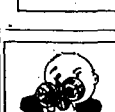

But just as inevitably, that emphasis remains, as it should, the secret of those participating—until it is released against the enemy in the form of bullets or steel. We don't expect football quarterbacks to announce their signals to the stadium. We hardly can expect Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill, charged with calling signals for United Nations, to give out the plays discussed and decided upon. When they have finished their conversations, or proceeded far enough, there will be the usual formal review, correctly designed for domestic morale and civilian bewilderment. Then in actual action, will come the true announcement.

One thing, however, we can assume, that Mr. Churchill has not returned for a second wartime visit because of our social graces. Something too momentous for the trans-Atlantic telephone is afoot. Either the situation is so extreme in Libya and Russia as to demand desperate measures, or there is an opportunity which requires seizure by the forelock. We doubt if this meeting is primarily a periodic review of the global war situation. It probably is concerned more with something immediate and vital.—Portland Oregonian.

The average person might be defined as one who spends money he has not yet earned, to buy things he doesn't need, to impress people he doesn't like.—Buhl Herald.

RUSH ORDER

Sot Phots:

At a local soft drink drive-in the other day a young couple in a sedan rushed in amid a cloud of dust and honked impatiently for curb service. When the waitress ran out they ordered (yeah! it startled me, too) two glasses of water! After drinking the water, drove madly away.

The waitress scratched her head.

DUPLICITY BY A LIBRARIAN

Pot Shots didn't expect such duplicity from a librarian, so he took the bait hook, line and sinker.

We were taking a couple of books over at the local literature emporium when Miss Jessie Fraser, the competent and businesslike librarian lady, beckoned to us.

"Did you hear about the armed guard around the library?" she asked us.

Our newspaper instincts nfire at sight of a swell story, we said no we didn't, quick what's the dope and has there been sabotage or what.

Miss Fraser whispered solemnly: "They found dynamite in the dictionary."

Sadly, we trudged out.

COMBINING BUSINESS WITH PATRIOTISM

Dear Pots Man:

This "buy a bomber" campaign is making businessmen out of young Americans.

There's Jack Montooth, for example. Jack's here from Long Beach, Calif., to spend the summer.

When Jack, aged 12, learned by letter that his dad George Montooth, was planning to build a guest house to have as a surprise for members of his family on their return from Idaho, he took his pen in hand and made a proposition.

"I'll sell you that plot of ground my victory garden's on, and you can put the guest house there," he wrote. His price was $25.

Yesterday Jack received a check for $18.75 from his dad. He did some quick figuring.

"That may not be my asking price, but I'll buy a bond and when it matures it'll be $25, by gosh," he reasoned.

And then he bought the bond.

He and his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Fuller, are spending the summer with Mrs. Ruth Woodington, another daughter of Mrs. Fuller.

SMILE

You can say a cheery "good morning"

And you start the day in right.

You know you have done your best

When you go to bed at night.

You can grunt it like a ground hog,

Or you can snap it like a crab

It's the way you say a thing

That often gets you in bad.

You can be short and snappy

You can grouch around all day,

But when evening comes at last

You will feel it didn't pay.

You may give your neighbor courage

If you meet him with a smile.

You may lift a heavy burden

If it's only for a while.

And your life will be worth living

If you smile and smile and smile.

TALE AVENT SWANS

Dear Pots:

My goodness but traffic is getting difficult these days.

In fact it was so bad out by the cemetery early Saturday morning that police assistance was required.

Seems as though two of the big white swans over in the lagoon of the Sunset memorial park decided to go for a walk and see what the rest of the world was all about.

They strolled out on the highway and remained there — autos and trucks be hanged (or rattened).

A truck driver called the police and the police called the grounds keeper at the memorial park and he called the swans and they — well, they went back to the lagoon.

CHEERFUL NOTE DEPT.

Pot Shots finds, in a release sent out from Boise, a potent reason why every gent in the state ought to join these new Idaho volunteers. The reason, bluntly, is: If Idaho should be invaded, every Idahoan will grab a gun pronto. If he's a member of the volunteer reserves, properly identified and all, he relieves the rights of a belligerent under international law. If he's not, the enemy can shoot him as a spy or sniper. Cheery idea.

On second thought, we find two objections to this argument. (a) The Japs probably wouldn't abide by any rules. (b) A fighting-mad Idahoan, defending his home, wouldn't care a hoot about international law.

FAMOUS LAST LINE

". . . Huh—she must've given her girdles to the rubber campaign!"

HISTORY OF TWIN FALLS

AS GLEANED FROM THE FILES OF THE TIMES-NEWS

27 YEARS AGO, JUNE 25, 1915

W. T. Wallace and wife and daughter departed Friday for the east. Mrs. Wallace and daughter will visit with relatives in Canyon City, Colorado, while Mr. Wallace goes on to New York City on business in connection with the Great Shoshone and Twin Falls Power and Light company, of which he is receiver and general manager.

The Fourth of July committee will open their big dancing pavilion in the park on Saturday evening, July 3rd with a big dance to which everyone is invited.

15 YEARS AGO—JUNE 23, 1927

Honoring Mrs. O. Gray, formerly Miss Naomi Anderson, Miss Neva Clear, Miss Mary Louise Bailey and Miss Mildred Bertsch entertained at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the Clear home. Mrs. Clifford McCain and Miss Hazel McDowell won prizes.

Albert Koster and sister, Clara, stopped off on their way from Idaho Falls to Moscow to visit with their brother, O. T. Koster.

CARE OF YOUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

CHILDREN SHOULD BE USEFUL

Recently a man, 80 years old, wrote a letter to a great newspaper in which he told that when he was a child of 10 he walked to school two miles each day, and back again. He milked a cow, brought in kindling and water before he started. When he returned he did the odd jobs about the house, milked the cow, brought in more wood, helped water the cattle, fed the dog, and closed the chicken coops.

In vacations he helped rake hay, pitch it and store it. He shared the work and the responsibility of the home on the farm. He bemoaned the helplessness of the present 10-year-old boy.

The newspaper replied, "Times have changed." That, in my opinion, is not the answer. Times have changed, but human nature has not. It has the same needs, the same wants, the same possibilities of growth that were present in Adam and Eve in the garden.

The old man had put his finger on the weakness of education in our country. In our desire to brighten the lot of childhood, relieve it of drudgery and the imposition of heavy labor, we went to the other extreme and offered them no usefulness, no responsibility, and so prolonged their childhood until maturity. The result has not been happy but of such character as to draw the response of this old man reared under pioneer conditions.

Can't Respect Sacrifice

Children reared in the notion that they are free to play, to enjoy, to live without care, to get and to take without thought of giving, have scant understanding of the meanings of the life about them. Not knowing, they cannot respect the labor and the sacrifice of those who supply their needs. They are selfish, blind, ignorant because they have been deprived of their share of the work, of the experiences they needed to give them understanding of their responsibility to the family and the community.

At adolescence they are faced with the pain of life; labor, responsibility for others. Only the most intelligent can make the adjustments required, and they suffer in the change. The others feel cheated by the weight of their ignorance and inexperience. They are failures and blamed by society for being so. Their early training for responsibility through usefulness, as the old man suggested, many of them could have been saved to useful citizenship.

Useful maturity does not appear on the twenty-first birthday as some seem to believe. It is the slow growth of training, doing, feeling, experiencing.

Must Have Experience

The home of today offers scant opportunity for usefulness to the children, but it does offer some. If parents took the time to search for opportunities for training to usefulness they could find some. The school could find more. The community could offer others.

Children must have the experience of usefulness, of responsibility, of work undertaken in full acceptance, of punishment in order to make their full growth in intelligence, skill, self-help, general gumption.

To any times have changed is not the answer. Human nature has not changed. Give the children, all the children, their chance to grow through usefulness and we will have a sturdier generation.

ANALYZING CURRENT NEWS FROM NEW YORK

PEERLESS — For the first time since the days of Al Smith, the Democrats may lose the President's empire state next fall, according to insiders of the American Labor party. At the moment this group balks at supporting Attorney General John J. Bennett, jr., who has been picked for governor by the chieftains. Exactly what this powerful workingman's outfit will do is a mystery to the public —and to its own puzzled members.

Even if the A. L. P. bosses finally go down the line for the Brooklyn candidate, the local ward leaders fear they cannot deliver the rank and file. Some advocate their running a liberal like Dorothy Thompson or a noble — but futile — gesture. Such impractical stuff is scorned by the shrewd politicians who yearn to be with a winner. A few of them now suggest swinging to Dewey because he cleaned up racketeering in unions.

ALBERT LEMAN.

If the former D. A. muffs the G. O. P. nomination, two courses are proposed within the Labor party: One is to lie low and knife Bennett in November; the other is to bolt their old allies and boom Wendell Willkie for Albany. Lately she has pushed herself into the good graces of David Dubinsky, whose word carries tremendous weight among the garment trades and their affiliates. It will take all of Angelo A. Farley's famous skill to guide Mr. Bennett through the storms. But Jim always has been a peerless pilot.

METHODS—"We can have peace or we can have revenge, but we cannot have both," declares Herbert Hoover in "The Problems of Lasting Peace," the new book which he has issued in collaboration with former Ambassador Hugh Gibson. (Doubleday, Doran & Co., publishers.) And the former President outlines what he believes are the various paths to a lasting international order.

"Hoss sense" rather than star dust characterizes the pages. One opinion expressed is that, instead of punishing the German nation as a whole, we should prevent the revival of militarism. A "huge mistake of the Versailles Treaty," claims the elder statesman, was that it permitted (Germany's) professional armies . . . Repeated experience with this warrior caste in the bluffs, intimidations, aggressions, billow-ups and attacks without even the declaration of war should be enough for the world in this particular." We must make a peace that will stand a time."

He explores such stabilizing machinery as a reincarnated League of Nations, a great federation — and even a possible Pax American in which an omnipotent Uncle Sam rules the globe as did ancient Rome. Cynics will sneer at the great Quaker's faith; New Dealers will refuse to read, merely because the volume is written by Mr. Hoover; but every thoughtful person interested in practical methods of perpetual harmony will find meat in this document.

CAPTIVES—We should revise our notions about the Japs again. A few months back we stupidly underestimated them and from Dec. 7 until the day after Doolittle's raid we paid a terrible price for our obtuseness. Lately some have believed the scare talk that the terrible Nips are all suicide pilots and that the ancient codes of the Choshu and Satsuma fire-eating clans inspire every aviator to seek death for dear old Hirohito. But skeptical allied airmen in the far east and India are inclined to debunk all such popular theories.

Tokyo admits that a hundred planes vanished in the Ceylon jungles and fosters the fiction that the operators intentionally gave up their lives for the sake of glory. But Indian scouts have searched the brush and brought back prosaic stories of enemy craft wrecked by hitting trees, crashing in swamps, and ordinary weather accidents apart from ack-ack destruction.

A couple of bombardiers were bagged at Singapore and requested believers with which to shoot themselves. But the prisoners admitted later that these heroics were put on because they had supposed the British, like themselves, rarely took captives. Zealots have been cornered with rising sun flags tied to their foreheads. These were used to pep up their pluck and to earmark themselves for human sacrifice. U. S. aces from the Coral sea and Midway insist that Mr. Moto will run away as fast as any other outnumbered or outclassed pilot.

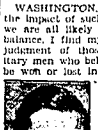

SUCCESS—The battles flaring here and there throughout the globe are the previews of 1942's shiny new weapons. Which one will be revolutionary—or a dismal failure? Only after actual battle experience can the final verdict be rendered. The Germans are trying out a new rocket bomb but the Russians beat them to it with a device that combines all the advantages of the old Stuka with none of its flaws.

The RAF has developed a Hawker Typhoon fighter plane which has a Napier Sabre motor of 2,250 horsepower. The United States and the Japanese have accomplished wonders with aerial torpedoes but until recently the British admiralty completely overlooked this wicked explosive. But now it is finishing the preliminary trials of a machine which will supplant its slow Swordfish aircraft.

The axis G. H. Q. has one distinct advantage over the United Nations. The Germans are waging every type of warfare themselves: Desert stalking, naval engagements, submarine raids, overland blitzkrieg and large-scale land battles against the Soviet. If their latest gun is either a success or a flop, they know immediately from the reports of their subs. The allies have no such pool of information, in fact, the shy—or suspicious—Russians still bar our officers from their front lines.

CLAPPER'S OBSERVATIONS ON NATIONS AT WAR

WASHINGTON, June 25—Under the impact of such a loss as Libya, we are all likely to be thrown off balance. I find myself lying in the judgment of those American military men who believe this war will be won or lost in Europe, and not on any of the fringe battlefields.

We went up to an unsatisfied feeling of optimism over the Midway victory and now we are dropping into unjustified depths of spirit over the beating in Libya. Behind public sentiment here and in England goes to extremes. First in one direction and then in the other.

The loss of Libya is proving a deep shock, even more so in England than here. Churchill appears to be facing political crisis, as he did last winter after the fall of Singapore.

As some of our military men see it, the danger is that we will spread our forces so widely that we will be weak anywhere and nowhere. Already the call is heard to send heavy reinforcements to the near east. Japanese activities in the Aleutians and along the Pacific northwest coast have increased the pressure for more diversion of our forces there. China, India and the southwest Pacific are relentless in their demand for support from the United Nations pool of resources. Russia is bleeding to death and must have more and more help.

Against this pressure, the thought of this group is that the best chance of defeating Germany is to smash at her while Russia is still fighting. The only effective open fire is by air. The RAF is showing the way. Soon an American air force will add its weight.

A number of American military men believe air attacks on the scale that will be possible can knock Germany out or come very close to it. Germany rails on these attacks intermittent. Being right raids they were inaccurate. Damage to war production was slight. These military men believe that to be effective it must be continuous and be aimed at strategic industrial points. That plus sustained pounding of the populations in the main producing centers will make it impossible for Hitler to continue.

Another substantial line of military opinion is that this air attack will have to be followed up by ground invasion to bring about defeat.

While that differences exists, the same opinion holds that we must spread the decisive blow must be aimed directly at Germany and the sooner the better.

Potato Sales in South, East Rise

BOISE, June 25 (AP)—Substantial gains in competition in eastern and southern markets have been made by Idaho potatoes as the results of four years of advertising, the Idaho advertising commission has been advised by its secretary.

A gain of 1,130 per cent in Atlanta, Ga., since 1937 is shown by U. S. department of agriculture figures, L. E. Sargent reported. He explained that the unloadings in 1937 were only 1.6 per cent and in 1941 were 22.7 per cent.

Newspaper advertising and several visits each year by dealer service representatives resulted in the increase, he said.

Comparative gains in other cities during the period, he said, were 11 per cent in Cleveland, 14 per cent in Dallas, 12 per cent in Detroit, 16 per cent in Fort Worth, 10 per cent in Kansas City, 18 per cent in New Orleans, 12 per cent in Philadelphia, 6 per cent in Pittsburgh and 6 per cent in Washington. Unloadings, he said, were considerably higher in each case.

SISTER TESTIFIES IN MURDER TRIAL

AMERICAN FALLS, Ida., June 25 (AP) — A defense witness told a district court jury Wednesday that Loren McNurlen was planning to run away with Gust Becker's wife when the latter shot and killed him in a tavern here April 18.

Becker, 41, is on trial for murder. The state completed its case with 11 witnesses who told of the shooting, in which McNurlen, 20, died with a bullet in his brain and Mrs. Becker, 17-year-old bride of a month, was wounded in the hand and in the neck.

The charge that Mrs. Becker and McNurlen were planning to run away was made by Melba Blazer, a sister of Mrs. Becker. She said she found her sister in McNurlen's room the afternoon of April 18 and they told her they were getting ready to leave town.

Then, said Miss Blazer, Mrs. Becker went upstairs to her room to tell her husband she was leaving and he locked her in her room. Then, Miss Blazer testified, McNurlen tried unsuccessfully to get into Becker's room, and finally called through the door that he would meet Mrs. Becker at the Victory lounge in 10 minutes.

Miss Blazer was to complete her story today.

Medical Unit of 116th Has Aussie Reunion Banquet

It was just like old home week down in Australia the first of this month.

Reason was that members of the medical detachment, 116th engineers, had a reunion dinner, composed mostly of "local boys" the organization was "divided in half" when it left the United States sometime ago. Members then thought they'd never see each other again—at least not until after the war was over.

But it so happened that both groups were sent to Australia and there "in a town near our camp, somewhere in Australia," according to word of the event received from Corp. Eldon D. Amos, a son of Mrs. Frank Amos, Wendell.

The "toast list" at the banquet included three to "wine, women, song and the folks back home," according to the menu program. And the eats—well among other things there was grilled steak served—and in ink on the margin of the menu Corp. Amos had written: "and it wasn't mutton either."

Among the "boys" who went to Australia with the outfit and who, for the most part, attended the reunion dinner, were the following:

Gooding Expects To Exceed Quota

GOODING, June 25—Although its quota for June was more than doubled over the previous month, Gooding county will proceed its allotment in the purchase of war savings stamps and bonds, Adam J. Schubert, executive chairman of the county war savings staff, announced today.

"With a June quota of $22,000, total purchases so far this month have come over $19,000," said Mr. Schubert, "and there is every indication that we will more than reach our total."

The county's quota for May was $9,000.

At a meeting of the war savings staff yesterday, the executive chairman emphasized the importance of urging lodges, associations, civic clubs, political sub-divisions and the like to buy series F and G war bonds. Bankers, city and county officials, representatives of the highway district and others pledged their active support in such a campaign.

BURLEY

Mrs. Cecil Spencer and Mrs. Howard Boden left for Chico, Calif., to join their husbands who are employed in defense industries.

Glendon Jones, who is stationed with the air corps in Texas, was here to attend the funeral of his brother, Ervin Jones.

Miss Lydia Cain, student nurse at St. Alphonsus hospital, has returned to Boise after spending her vacation here.

Miss Jean Collette, instructor at University of Idaho, arrived here for her vacation and will leave this week-end for Colorado.

WENDELL SAILOR KILLED IN ACTION

JEROME, June 25 — Henry Irons, 29, fireman second class, U. S. N. R. and brother of Mrs. Fred Stumpf, Jerome, has been killed in action, bringing to four the number of men from this general area who have been killed in service of their country since outbreak of the war.

Memorial services for Irons will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday at the L. D. S. church at Wendell.

Irons, according to official word received, died in action aboard a United States navy ship, the Neosho, which went down in the Coral sea battle May 7. The young man had enlisted in the navy just a year before that time.

Irons made his home in Wendell with Mr. and Mrs. Alf Anderson since death of his parents 16 years ago.

Mrs. Stumpf had just returned from a visit with her sister, Mary Brummett, San Francisco. While there she received the official word of her brother's death.

Irons is survived by two brothers and four sisters, Jennie Kennison and Marie Stumpf, Jerome; Mary Brummett, San Francisco; Margaret Miller, Gooding; Harry Irons, Port Angeles, Wash., and Bill Irons, Jerome.

Other men of this area killed in action are Lyle Lee Briggs, electrician's mate, third class, who died Dec. 7 on the Arizona at Pearl Harbor; Dale Rupert, who died on the Lexington which was sunk in the Coral sea battle; William Arthur (Buck) Smith, who also died in the Coral sea battle. He was on the same ship on which Irons was serving.

Lieut. Peterson Is Honored at Declo

DECLO, June 25—Second Lieut. Basil Peterson, who was home on a 10-day furlough from Phoenix, Ariz., was honored recently at a family dinner by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Peterson. He returned Friday to his station.

Out-of-town relatives at the dinner were Mrs. Eva Bauner and children, Pocatello; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carlson, Burley; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson, Rupert, and Miss Mary Peterson, Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne O. Lewis also entertained in his honor while he was here, arranging a fireplace dinner for 25 guests at their home.

SLAYER BOOKED TO FACE DEATH

SALT LAKE CITY, June 25 (AP)—Donald L. Condit, 25-year-old convicted slayer of Harold Thorne, Salt Lake salesman, today was scheduled to die before a firing squad at the state prison July 30, after the state board of pardons denied his plea for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

Condit, whose only hope for life now rests with Governor Herbert B. Maw, previously was denied an appeal by the state supreme court.

Maw is attending a governor's conference at Asheville, N. C., and will not be available for comment until he returns to Utah.

The youthful California hitchhiker was convicted of slaying Thorne, who had befriended him, in the desert country near St. George, Utah, March 20, 1941. Condit's friends and relatives, pleading for his life, told the board that he was a "mental depressive" and that he must have committed the crime in a moment of temporary insanity.

But Ellis J. Pickett, St. George district attorney who prosecuted Condit, maintained that the crime was "cunningly planned" and that it would be a "terrible travesty" to spare his life.

Two other convicted murderers—George Mortensen, who killed three persons in a family dispute at Ogden, June 29, 1935, and Ercil Clark, convicted of slaying Willis D. Ferguson, Sandy—were denied commutation of their life sentences by the board.

The board also denied parole to former Salt Lake mayor E. B. Erwin and Attorney R. O. Pearce, now serving short sentences in the county jail on conviction of vice conspiracy charges.

Censors have passed the news that the British are using underground factories for the production of planes for the RAF. Modern luminous lighting and air conditioning furnish comfortable working conditions for "round-the-clock" production.

Police Break up Runaways' Jaunt

JEROME, June 25—An unwilling guest of Jerome police last weekend was Gerald Flint, 12, Malad, who was found here Saturday with an older companion, Jerry Pinson, also of Malad, after the pair had run away from home last Thursday morning.

The boys had set out, with a few spare clothes over their arms, and a small sum of money, to visit the older boy's father, Emery Pinson, who is employed in a Jerome barber shop. They made their way by hitchhiking, spending Friday night with an uncle of the Pinson boy in Rupert.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Richard Flint, Gerald's mother, had notified friends here that the boys might be headed for Jerome. They were picked up by an officer soon after their arrival Saturday noon.

Mr. Pinson took charge of his son, who has been in care of a grandmother in Malad. The younger boy was placed in the women's ward, and later turned over to Rev. Charles Horeis, of the Presbyterian church, who entertained him overnight, and placed him on a homebound bus Sunday morning.

The boys revealed that their further plans had been to hitchhike to Yellowstone park, working on farms to earn their way.

TRAVIS TO PLAY

CAMP WHEELER, Ga., June 25 (AP)—Cecil Travis, former Washington Senator third baseman and now training at Camp Wheeler, will leave Saturday for Chicago to play in the all-star service game July 7. Travis is batting .469 with the Camp Wheeler nine.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 41 ★ Seven thirst quenchers easily prepared at home ★ How to save pennies for War Stamps ★ About Sugar Substitutes in Baking ★ A short, short story at a glance

How to offer real Fountain-Service right in your own home

You can't find cooler, more sparkling summer drinks than these 7 thirst-quenchers that were planned by the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau. And best of all, they were planned so that you could easily prepare and serve them at home.

PETER PIPER PUNCH

Combine 3 cups orange carbonated beverage, 2 cups ginger ale, and 2 cups grape juice. Chill thoroughly. Just before serving add thinly sliced orange slices and maraschino cherries. Pour into punch bowl over cake of ice. Serves 8 to 10.

CITRUS FLOAT

½ cup lemon juice
½ to ¾ cup sugar
4 cups boiling water
2 teaspoons tea leaves
1 quart ginger ale
1 pint orange ice

Mix lemon juice and sugar, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Pour water over tea in heated container; cover, steep five minutes; pour tea immediately from leaves. Cool. Add tea to lemon juice and sugar. Just before serving add ginger ale. Pour into tall glasses over crushed ice or ice cubes. Top with orange ice and serve at once. Serves 8.

PEPPERMINT ALE FIZZ

½ lb. or ½ cup finely ground peppermint stick candy
1½ cups whipping cream
1 qt. ginger ale

Put candy through food chopper, using coarse knife. Whip cream until stiff. Fold candy into cream. Pour into automatic refrigerator tray. Place in freezing unit. Set control at coldest point and freeze until mixture is firm. Place serving of peppermint cream in tall glass. Fill glass with ginger ale. Mix well. Serves 6.

COFFEE COOLER

Fill tall glasses ½ with crushed ice and a scoop of ice cream. Pour in freshly-made, hot double-strength coffee.

RASPBERRY FLIP

Make 4 cups strong tea; chill. Combine No. 1 can (or 2 cups fresh crushed) raspberries with ½ cup sugar; boil 5 minutes; strain. Chill. Combine tea, raspberry syrup, ½ cup lemon juice, and 2 cups orange juice or orangeade beverage. Pour into tall glasses over crushed ice or ice cubes. Serves 6 to 8.

GRAPE JUICE

Because it is naturally sweet, grape juice is a special boon during this sugar-conscious period. Combine it with carbonated water, ginger ale, lemon, grapefruit, orange or pineapple juice; or dilute it to taste with ice water.

TROPICAL PUNCH

Whip ½ cup mashed ripe banana until creamy; combine with 1½ cups cold milk; add 1 tbsp. pineapple juice; pour into a tall glass; top with a dash of nutmeg and garnish with a stick of cinnamon. Makes one 10-oz. serving.

What to substitute for sugar in muffins and fruit pies

You can use any of the substitutes for sugar in making muffins—maple flavored or corn syrup, honey, molasses (light or dark), sorghum and brown or maple sugar—in the same amounts as the amount of granulated sugar called for in your favorite recipe. Mix the liquid type sweetenings with liquid ingredients, and proceed as usual. Baking temperatures remain the same.

Note: Dried fruits or chopped nut meats combine well with the flavors of sugar substitutes in muffins; they also add nutrition and dried fruits add sweetening.

In fruit pies, maple flavored syrup or corn syrup can be used this way: In place of 1 cup granulated sugar, use ½ cup syrup plus ½ cup granulated sugar. Mix with prepared fruit before putting it in pie shell (to distribute sweetening evenly and to prevent soaking of the pastry). Baking temperatures remain the same.

When you use brown or maple sugar, honey or molasses (light or dark): Use an equal amount of substitute in place of the granulated sugar called for and proceed as outlined above.

To sweeten fresh or cooked fruits, use any of the sugar substitutes according to your taste.

And remember you'll find any of these substitutes for sugar at your nearby Safeway Store—and low priced too—every day!

We're sorry—but we're awfully proud too

Under normal conditions, every Safeway employee receives careful training before starting to serve you. We're sorry to say this is no longer possible. But we're mighty proud of the reason why. For each day more and more Safeway men are joining the armed forces. And there just isn't time to properly train those who are taking their places. So if service isn't quite as fast as you've come to expect, we hope you'll understand.

GERMANS SMASH WAY INTO EGYPT

battleground but these reports lacked confirmation elsewhere and probably were a nazi propaganda effort to get information from allied sources in reply.)

(The Italian communique said the axis forces had taken Sidi Barrani, important point 85 miles east of the Egyptian border and that their forces also were operating south of that point.)

Occupation Not Admitted

The occupation of Sidi Barrani had not been admitted officially, but it was stated that the British line had been pulled back to that area from the old defense sector which ran from Sollum, on the coast inside Libya, southwest 20 miles to Sidi Omar.

Rommel's relentless attack gave the hard-pressed British under Lieut. Gen. Neil M. Richie neither rest nor an opportunity to prepare new defense positions. The German supplies lines are stretched dangerously but Rommel holds all the frontier forts and stands nearer to the chief axis goal in the middle east.

The Suez is only 400 miles away and Alexandria, Britain's great naval base is approximately 250 miles from Sidi Barrani. The axis forces based in Crete, including parachute troops, also are in a position to move against the British flank. With the coast ports in his hands, Rommel can shorten his supply routes, utilizing Greek ports as well as those of Italy.

Suez Threatened

The advance threatens not only the Suez, but forms an arm of the pincers Adolf Hitler is seeking to close on the oil riches of the Caucasus.

British mobile forces of tanks and armored cars fought desperately to keep back the axis spearheads which thrust into their lines to form openings for massed formations, and it was asserted that heavy losses had been inflicted on the enemy.

But by last night, it was admitted, the axis advanced units had reached a position southeast of Sidi Barrani.

Grave as it was, the news did not mean necessarily that the British line had been crumpled.

It had been hinted that Gen. Ritchie, commanding the British 8th army, might elect to make his big stand in Egypt, to the east of the hurriedly organized frontier line.

Rail Terminus Is Defense

Britain's defense in western Egypt is based on Mersa Matruh, 140 miles east of the frontier, a railroad terminus to which men, guns and planes may be moved quickly in mass.

Thus as Rommel's advance from now on would lengthen and weaken his communications, Britains would become stronger.

But Rommel, pressing his army relentlessly and straining men and machines in hope of breaking the 8th army before it could be reorganized and reinforced after the Tobruk defeat, evidently was confident that he could continue.

Mersa Matruh, where the big British stand may be made, has long been regarded as probably the best defensive position not only east of the frontier, but in the entire 800-mile stretch to El Agheila, in the Benghasi area of Libya.

Making Supreme Drive

Axis forces had not penetrated as far as Sidi Barrani since the Italians got there in December, 1940, when the British withdrew before them to organize their offensive which drove the Italians back to Benghasi and broke their field Marshal Rodolfo Graziani.

Now it seemed evident that Rommel was making his supreme drive in Egypt, hoping that the British could not regroup after their retreat from Libya.

Allied hope was pinned in the air force, now strengthened by United States army air corps Consolidated B-24 four-motored bombers, and their intensifying attacks on enemy concentrations, communication lines and shipping.

The plans are now handicapped, however, the British withdrawal because they are compelled to use bases farther to the east, and the enemy air force is correspondingly moving eastward.

Gooding Rubber Drive Half Done

GOODING, June 25 — Gooding county has turned in a little more than 50 tons of scrap rubber since the rubber collection campaign was begun, announces Alex Watson, county chairman of rubber collections. The quota is slightly over 100 tons.

Mr. Watson urges the fullest cooperation of all county residents to make this quota 100 per cent complete.

Boy Scouts are being organized to make a house to house canvass. Residents of Gooding and vicinity are asked to make another "rubber hunt" from cellar to attic and have it ready for the Scouts when they call. Scout troops will receive one cent per pound to be used in their Scout fund.

Every gas dealer in the county is receiving salvage rubber. Those bringing rubber in will be paid one cent per pound or they may donate the amount brought.

(Mr. Watson said that the importance of this collection "cannot be stressed too much." The collection will be concluded June 30.

DELINQUENT TAX FUNDS RETURNED

Dozens of checks mailed to County Treasurer Cora Stevens in payment for semi-annual taxes due prior to the fourth Monday in June today were being mailed back to Twin Falls county residents. These taxpayers consequently have gone on the county treasurer's books as delinquent.

Mrs. Stevens acted on the basis of an opinion handed down by County Attorney Everett M. Sweeley. He ruled that checks for taxes in mail postmarked on or prior to June 22 (Monday) had to be accepted. In a supplemental opinion, however, given at the request of Mrs. Stevens, he ruled that she would be required to accept checks from taxpayers if they made an affidavit that their letters were in the mail on June 22 although the letters bore a postmark of June 23.

Sweeley pointed out that letters mailed just before closing time on June 22 did not receive the postmark of that day, but of June 23. These must be accepted if an affidavit is sworn out by the taxpayer, Until that time, however, they will remain on the books as delinquent.

Rayburn said that the 25-minute conversations had covered the general situation in Russia, North Africa and the Pacific.

United Nations shipping losses and the prospects for keeping the sea lanes open were also discussed, Rayburn said.

The congressional leaders met with Mr. Roosevelt and Churchill following war department announcement that a "European theater for United States forces" had been established in London, possibly as an important step in the eventual opening of second land front in Europe.

Shortly after the congressional conference, Mr. Roosevelt and Churchill convened an extraordinary Pacific war council meeting, with Canadian Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King also attending.

A Pacific war council luncheon was arranged to follow the formal meeting. Secretary of State Cordell Hull and Undersecretary Sumner Welles were invited to the luncheon. Later, Mr. Roosevelt and Churchill were scheduled to meet separately with Hull and British Ambassador Lord Halifax.

Churchill also announced meetings with Sir Girja Bajpai, Indian agent-general in this country, and South African Minister Ralph Close.

he returns from Washington. It was indicated.

The only friendly motion expresses confidence in the government's general direction of the war but urged that the principal of unified command should be paramount in all operations.

Wilson Broadbent, well informed daily political correspondent, reported that Churchill, talking by telephone to advisers here, indicated he would speak fully and frankly on the Libyan defeat and take full responsibility for all that has happened.

At the same time, the correspondent wrote, Churchill "will defend himself and his colleagues to the limit in a fighting speech in which he will describe in starker reality than ever before the facts behind Britain's war effort and the problems which face the nation."

Red Cross Board Meets Saturday

An important meeting of the Twin Falls Red Cross chapter's board will be held Saturday at 8 p. m. at the Idaho Power company auditorium, Mrs. Pearl McDonald, executive secretary, announced today.

All executive committee members are urged to attend this session, the first since March 31.

The swim campaign will be considered, and the accomplishments of the emergency volunteer services, including canteen, production and nutrition, will be reviewed.

Industrial Users Register June 29

The office of Twin Falls county rationing board will be open from 7 to 10 p. m. on June 29 and 30 to register institutional and industrial sugar users (proprietors of cafes, restaurants, etc.) for their July and August allotments, Chairman Carl Anderson announced today.

He said that form R-314 would be mailed to institutional and industrial sugar users residing outside of Twin Falls and, if their requirements have not changed, they may fill out the form and mail it to the local office without making the trip there.

Anderson reminded industrial and institutional users of sugar that they should apply for two months' supply rather than one month's as in the past.

Stamp No. 4 out After Saturday

War sugar ration stamp No. 4 will be only good until midnight Saturday, Carl Anderson, chairman of the local rationing board, warned today. Stamps Nos. 5 and 6 will be good for four weeks and for two pounds of sugar each. That, however, doesn't raise the individual quota per week.

Anderson said that stamp No. 4 should be taken to the store by Saturday night and sugar obtained because it will not be negotiable after that date.

"Starting Sunday stamp No. 5 will be good until midnight of July 26 and No. 6 from July 26 to Aug. 22," the local board chairman declared.

Last Call Comes To Oldest K. of C.

Alois Drexler, 72, oldest member of the Twin Falls council, Knights of Columbus, and resident of Twin Falls county since 1905, died at 3:45 p. m. Wednesday at his home in Filer.

Mr. Drexler had been ill since January, 1942. He was born in Bavaria, Germany, June 8, 1870. He had been a resident of Filer for 18 years.

Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p. m. Friday at the Reynolds funeral home chapel, and mass will be celebrated by Father Harry Ackerman Saturday 9 a. m. at St. Edward's Catholic church, of which he was a member.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Katharine Drexler, Filer; and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. William Bush, Twin Falls; Mrs. Julius Jasper, Filer; Miss Cecelia Drexler, Reno, Nev.; Ludwig Drexler, Twin Falls, and John Drexler, Filer.

A brother, Wolfgang Drexler, lives in Germany.

Working Wife May Fade out In Deferment

The Associated Press report of the new regulation governing the induction of married men into the armed forces of the nation was interpreted today by Capt. J. H. Seaver, clerk of Twin Falls county selective service No. 1, as indicating that there will be no deferment henceforth for registrants with working wives.

"Understand, though," he said, "we have received no official notice from state headquarters and nothing that I say can be regarded as official."

Knotty Question

The induction of men with working wives, he said, has been a troublesome question before the draft board. One registrant with a working wife has appealed a local board decision placing him in the 1-A classification (immediate service). Awaiting a decision on that case are a number of other similar cases, Seaver stated.

Two hundred and four registrants were classified at a meeting of the board last night. The board also ordered screening examinations of 25 others.

Only seven of the 204 classified were placed in the 1-A group.

One hundred and thirty-seven registrants were placed in the 3-A class, 45 in 3-B, 10 in 2-A, three in 1-C, one in 4-D, three in 4-F, two in 2-B and four in 1-B.

James Leighton Given Captaincy

Capt. and Mrs. James C. Leighton spent a few days during the Easter vacation visiting friends and relatives in Twin Falls before proceeding to their new station. They were previously stationed at Fort Ord, Calif.

the Beet Growers and Beet Industry of Magic Valley extend sincere ★

Thanks to the citizens of MAGIC VALLEY

A short month ago the beet crop of Magic Valley was in definite danger of total loss because of lack of labor. Farmers were thinking in terms of "plowing under" fast growing beet plants because the usual labor was not available for necessary thinning. Magic Valley was faced with a tremendous loss in revenue from the crop itself and from resulting labor and factory-operation payrolls.

Because sugar is a vital part of our war needs—not only from the standpoint of a food—but also as an ingredient in devastating explosives, our loss would be greater than ever in these grave times which our country now undergoes.

Such an emergency demanded the utmost in patriotic response and you citizens of our communities rose to that emergency with a spirit that is typically American—YOU GOT THE JOB DONE!

Today the beet crop is saved and with it is saved the agricultural resources which will play such an important part in winning the war! And we know that should such an occasion arise again in these times of emergency, store-owners, employes, students and our public in general will prove their patriotism again by similar measures.

Magic Valley communities deserve high praise for their spirit of willingness and cooperation displayed in the crop emergency!

UNITED NATIONS EXCEED AXIS IN PRODUCTION--NELSON

ENEMY HAS HUGE RESERVE SUPPLY

By GEORGE E. REEDY, JR.

WASHINGTON, June 25 (U.P.)—Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the war production board told the senate committee investigating the war program today that United Nations' production of war material now surpasses that of the axis.

But he warned that the enemy has reserves which must be overcome. Japan started its war program in 1930 and Germany in 1933, he said, whereas the United States began in 1940 and only now is getting mass production.

Hopes to Overcome Reserve

"I hope that before many months have passed we shall be able to build in such quantities that we will overcome that reserve," he said.

He appeared before the committee to review WPB's achievements.

He said the "sights are high" for this country's $220,000,000,000 war production program but that he is confident American industry and labor are equal to the tasks set.

Nelson divided the $200,000,000,000 war program as follows:

Period	Goods Delivered or Produced
Prior Jan. 1, 1942	$ 10,000,000,000
1942 and 1943	165,000,000,000x
1944 and on	35,000,000,000

x—$25,000,000,000 of that is for pay and subsistence.

"To give you some notion of just how large our program really is, let me point out that we propose to produce in the two years 1942 and 1943 combined for war purposes alone, twice as much in dollar value as was produced for all purposes in 1929," he said.

Six Billion a Month

This country must spend $6,000,000,000 a month to meet its program compared with a present rates of $3,800,000,000, he said. The major job, he added, is to turn out $140,000,000,000 worth of war goods in 1942 and 1943.

Production capacity is outstripping deliveries of raw materials, he continued, and the scrap collection drive is assuming increasing importance. He hinted that the government may have to consider stripping cities of metal fences, stairway and ornamental work.

"I am not yet sure what is involved in our seeking to utilize these sources of badly needed metals but it is not too soon for all of us to begin thinking about these possibilities," he said. "Anyone of us can walk down any street in Washington and see substantial quantities of metals that might thus be used."

New Ship and Chance at Japs Desire of Lexington Survivor

By MRS. G. W. DOYLE

RUPERT, June 25—Petty Officer Gordon Harper, a member of the crew of the ill-fated aircraft carrier Lexington for almost four years, who has returned to the coast after a two weeks' furlough visit here, left hoping "for a new ship and another chance at the Japs in the Pacific."

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harper, Paul, he served on the Lexington from the time he completed training, after enlisting Dec. 16, 1937, until it was sunk in the Coral sea battle.

Recalling his early experiences on the ship, the youth said that he had been on board only two weeks when the Lexington was sent on the unsuccessful search for Amelia Earhart.

Exploits of Heroism

Explaining that most of the events during and after the battle were impossible to disclose, he said, "The sinking of our Lexington and some of the heroism shown by fellows in the crew I'll always remember."

"I had a ringside seat during the battle, for my battle station was one of the pom-pom guns. I don't know how much ammunition our gun expended, but there were a lot of planes burning and sinking in the water around us.

"We had casings from our guns two and three deep all around our position," he continued.

"After the order was given to abandon ship, the ship's service store was opened and we sat around eating ice cream and telling jokes, awaiting our turn to leave," said the sailor who was one of 92 per cent of the crew which escaped.

Watched for Sharks

He told of grabbing a line and sliding into the sea, swimming for about 40 minutes and "wondering if I would make it to one of the other ships before some hungry shark caught up with me.

"I suppose there had been too much noise and commotion because no sharks were sighted," he concluded.

Petty Officer Harper, first class, handled the pay accounts of the crew until the time of the sinking. What he'll do now he doesn't know.

Judge Givens to Seek Reelection

BOISE, June 25 (U.P.)—Justice Raymond L. Givens, a member of the Idaho supreme court since 1925, has filed for reelection.

Justice Alfred Budge filed some time ago.

The judicial ticket is non-partisan. Two members of the court are to be elected this year.

Givens will let his record speak for itself," said Givens, in commenting on his bid for a fourth term.

A resident of Idaho since 1887, he was admitted to the bar in 1909, served as Ada county prosecuting attorney from 1911 to 1917, was a member of the legislature in 1919, assistant attorney general the following year and, from 1920 to 1924 served as district judge.

Burley Methodist Minister Arrives

BURLEY, June 25—Rev. Brooks H. Moore, newly appointed Methodist minister, has arrived in Burley and preached his first sermon for the Father's day service.

Rev. Moore replaces Rev. Dr. Raymond S. Rees, who has gone to Mt. Vernon, Wash., to accept a pastorate. Rev. Moore formerly had charge of the Glenns Ferry church. He has been in the west 10 years, and in the ministry 12 years. His wife is a Buhl woman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gan Thompson of that city.

Bert Tucker Now Navy Lieutenant

BURLEY, June 25—Bert H. Tucker, junior forester of St. Anthony, formerly of Burley, well-known in southern Idaho for his long service in the Minidoka national forest and in CCC educational work, has been commissioned as a lieutenant in the U. S. navy reserve, with orders to report at the naval training college at Harvard university July 1.

Lieut. Tucker is the son of Judge Henry W. Tucker of the Cassia county probate court. He is a native of Idaho; a graduate of the U. S. A. C. at Logan. Lieut. Tucker was an outstanding swimming champion while at Logan.

ITALY SEEKS TO GET LATIN BLOC

LONDON, June 25 (U.P.)—Benito Mussolini, uneasy lest the axis lose the war, has discussed with Foreign Minister Serrano Suner of Spain the creation of a "Latin bloc" to include Italy, Spain, France and Portugal, the Russian Tass agency reported from Geneva today.

Tass said the reports had come from circles close to the Italian legation, and that Mussolini had promised to help Spain, now pursuing a "reasonable policy of neutrality," to become the dominating member of the enterprise, if Suner would take the initiative in organizing it.

The bloc would follow a common policy now, as well as after the war, and Tass said it was a tacit acknowledgment of axis instability and Mussolini's yearning to make Italy's position easier if the axis fails.

Germany has plans of its own for France, Tass said, planning to divide it into small "independent" states, within the "framework of the new order."

Underground reports from the continent told of more disaffection in German-occupied nations and further slaughter of dissidents.

The London Daily Telegraph said a Jewish representative of the Polish national council had learned from a secret source that the Germans had fitted vans as gas chambers and were touring Poland, executing Poles 90 at a time. As many as 1,000 Poles a day were gassed, it was reported, and by this, and other means, the Germans have murdered more than 700,000 Poles since the war began.

FREE FRENCH AIMS BASED UPON ATLANTIC CHARTER

DE GAULLE ISSUES POLITICAL IDEAS

LONDON, June 25 (AP) — Defining the Free French political aims for the first time, Gen Charles De Gaulle issued a declaration today founded upon the principles of the Atlantic charter and providing for the election of a national assembly by the French people to determine their own future when the Germans are driven out.

The five points of the declaration were understood to have been approved by leaders of resistance to the German occupation of France through four months of the most remarkable secret negotiations yet conducted between England and the conquered homeland of the Free French.

Declaration Outlined

De Gaulle's declaration said the Free French stood for:

1—Election of a national assembly to decide the "future of the country," and "restoration of the complete integrity of both our home country and the French empire . . ."

2—Punishment of nazi leaders and traitors within France, and destruction of the totalitarian system as well as the overthrow of the eyatemite coalition of private interests which opposed the national interests of France.

3—Establishment of guarantees "to put an end to tyranny constituted by perpetual infringement of rights and to ensure liberty and dignity in the working life of every citizen."

4—Destruction of the "mechanical organization of mankind such as the enemy achieved in contempt of all religion, morals and charity," and the restoration of the old French ideal of liberty, equality and fraternity.

Favor World Organization

5—Creation of a "world organization establishing a lasting solidarity and mutual help between nations in every sphere."

The declaration was made to strengthen the Free French organization by a statement of what it is fighting for, and was intended also to silence criticism that De Gaulle was "too far to the right" in his political ideas.

It was formulated, Free French leaders said, after revisions were made by underground leaders in France including trade unionists, Catholics, socialists and individual leaders. Communists were said to have pledged support to De Gaulle although they did not accept the Free French political creed.

The declaration was published in underground newspapers throughout occupied France as early as June 15, but was withheld in England to assure the widest possible circulation on the continent."

ROOSEVELT SIGNS NAVY BILL

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP) — President Roosevelt had signed today a supplemental appropriation bill making $655,074,740 available to the navy for building 500,000 tons of auxiliary vessels, such as tenders tankers and service ships.

One Way to Save Rubber

Gov. Chase A. Clark is shown above as he stripped a rubber heel from a shoe in demonstrating one way to help the rubber salvage drive now on. Looking on is Herb Orchard, chairman of the petroleum industry scrap rubber drive for Idaho. The governor stressed responsibility of each individual citizen in helping the rubber drive.

Lions at Gooding Entertain Women

GOODING, June 25—Members of the Gooding Lions club entertained recently at Ladies night, beginning with dinner served at Flynn's cafe to 42 guests. Principal business of the meeting was induction of new officers.

Melvin Beck was toastmaster. Guests were seated at long tables decorated with carnations and painted dubbies. During the dinner hour, John Alexander, baritone, sang "Danny Boy," accompanied by Miss Louise Bibbins and Mrs. Otto Joslin sang "Sleepy Lagoon" and "One Dozen Roses," with Mrs. E. C. Jorgensen accompanist.

Officers installed were: Herb Love, president; Melvin Beck, first vice-president; Lorne Lauder, second vice president; Otto Joslin, secretary and treasurer; new directors, John P. Agar and William Bryan; tail twister, Harley Crippen and Lion tamer, Frank Robertson.

Reports were made by delegates attending the convention held recently in Sun Valley. Delegates were E. J. Baer, retiring president, and C. S. Williamson.

New members introduced were Bob Hollenbeck, Fred Locke, Valdo Gray, Lowell Wills and Joe W. Hill.

Herb Love won the war stamps in the game of "Lions." Mr. Baer announced that H. C. Byrant, former secretary who recently resigned to take up work out of town, had been awarded a key chain at the Sun Valley convention.

AREA TOTALS 460 TONS OF RUBBER

At the present time approximately 460 of the 1,563 tons of scrap rubber which is expected to come out of the 10 south central Idaho counties have been accounted for, E. E. Ostrander, petroleum chairman of the drive in this section, said today.

Yesterday Ostrander was informed that no figures on totals should be released but this morning the order was withdrawn by state headquarters. It was explained that the one-day "breather" was necessary to "get the state totals straight."

"Now I have been informed that totals can be released as they are compiled," Ostrander said.

225 Tons in County

Largest amount of scrap rubber to date has come from Twin Falls county, with a total of 225 tons against the quota assigned to the county of 561 tons. Among other counties in this section the following figures apply to date:

Jerome county, 33 tons collected against 153 one-half tons quota; Cassia county, 50 tons collected against 223 and one-half tons quota; Gooding county, about 50 tons against 144 tons quota.

"All other counties are running about in the same proportion," Ostrander said, adding:

"The drive is just about at the end and we are far from the quotas assigned. It's up to the citizens to get in the rubber and get it in at once. If they don't they might be a little sick when they find out what might happen if the rubber isn't obtained."

Meanwhile, in Boise, Gov. Clark said that "unless every citizen makes it his or her individual responsibility to turn in every bit of available rubber, the job will not be thoroughly done."

Time Is Short

"Time is short, since our national scrap rubber inventory is set for June 30 and the drive will close on that date.

"If people will just stop and think, and make it their job to search their own premises for rubber, nearly every household will product a contribution to the drive.

"No contribution is too small. Old hot water bottles, erasers, golf, tennis or sponge rubber balls, garters, arm bands, bicycle tires or anything made of rubber will help."

The rubber thus collected can be taken to any service station where it will be purchased at one cent a pound.

HOLD EVERYTHING

"Hah!—I knew they couldn't get along without me!"

BISTLINE TO RUN FOR U. S. SENATE

POCATELLO, June 25 (AP)—State Rep. Francis M. Bistline, speaker of the Idaho house of representatives at the 1941 session of the legislature, today announced his candidacy for the United States senatorial nomination in the Democratic primary Aug. 11.

"Before throwing my hat into the ring," the Pocatello lawyer said in a press statement, "I made a trip into all sections of the state to ascertain what people were doing and talking. Their primary interest, I found, was to get the war won, and most of them seemed to be taking the attitude that the desired result could best be accomplished by working—instead of talking.

New Faces Sought

"Politically, I found an overwhelming sentiment, plainly expressed, to the effect that some new faces in Washington from Idaho would probably be of benefit to the state and nation; that, what was expected of our congressional delegation; was unswerving support of the administration in the prosecution of the war and the peace to follow."

He added that many people regret that Idaho's resources, particularly the water power and strategic minerals, such as tungsten and phosphates are in such a retarded state of development that they cannot be fully utilized in the war effort and they are expecting their senators and representatives to put forth every effort to accomplish such development, thereby enabling Idaho to further contribute to the winning of the war.

"Likewise they are interested in post war development of these resources as well as the reclamation of arid lands.

"As to my position, primarily, the senate of the United States is a law making body, and I feel that my experience in legislative work does to some degree qualify me to do the work and accomplish the results which the people of the state reasonably expect of the person whose serves them as United States senator."

Four Way Fight

Bistline, who seeks the senate seat now held by John Thomas, Republican of Gooding, has entered what probably will be at least a four-way race for the Democratic nomination.

Former District Judge James R. Bothwell, Twin Falls, filed his candidacy June 12. Glen Taylor, Pocatello, "cowboy" radio entertainer and showman who won the Democratic nomination two years ago, has announced he will again be a candidate and Dr. Owen T. Stratton, Salmon, former Lemhi county state senator, made his announcement in February.

On the Republican side, Senator Thomas filed June 16 for renomination and his announced opposition includes Presley F. Horne, Caldwell, and Ben H. Jackson, Boise.

Bistline has served three terms as a Bannock county representative in the Idaho legislature and styles himself a "new deal" Democrat.

He was graduated by the University of Idaho in 1917, served in World war I and completed his law course at Northwestern university in 1920.

Lieut. Ray Jacobs Visits in Declo

DECLO, June 25—Honor guest at a recent reunion of Rex H. Jacobs' family members was First Lieut. Ray Jacobs, who piloted one of the U. S. army bombers from Mather field, Calif., where he is stationed, to Burley, accompanied by three second lieutenants who are studying navigation.

It was the first visit home for the youth since he was advanced to the rank of first lieutenant early in March.

Another son home for the week-end was Glen Jacobs, who is employed as a receptionist in the office of flying cadets, Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nielson, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex H. Jacobs, Salt Lake City, were also home for the week-end.

Evelyn Davis, J. H. Anderson Pledge Vows at Garden Nuptial

* * * * * * * *

Bride of Boisean

Mrs. J. Howard Anderson, who was Miss Evelyn Davis prior to her marriage at a garden ceremony last night at Filer. After a wedding trip to Sun Valley, the couple will be at home in Boise. (Staff Engraving)

At a garden wedding ceremony at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Miss Evelyn Davis, Boise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Davis, Filer, became the bride of J. Howard Anderson, Boise, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson, also of the capital city.

The bride chose her parents' wedding anniversary as the date for her own marriage. Vows were pledged in a secluded spot of the Davis garden before the arbor, from the center of which was suspended a large bell made of white peony buds with a clapper of pink rosebuds.

Pink-White Decor

At either side of the wedding party were tall baskets of pink and white peonies, and the spikes of delphinium and other blossoms growing about the garden, added beauty to the setting.

The bride wore a soft pink silk crepe suit and carried a colonial bouquet of Joanna Hill rosebuds, pinks and pale blue delphinium. Miss Mary Ellen Davis, the bride's sister, as maid of honor, wore a silk jersey aqua street length dress, a corsage of tuliman roses and carried a white prayer book.

Pamela DeMeyer, niece of the bridegroom, as flower girl, was dainty in a frock of white dotted with blue.

Harley Sullivan, Boise, was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Rev. E. L. White, Filer Methodist minister, was the officiating clergyman.

Completing the costumes of the mothers of the bride and bridegroom were red rosebud corsages. All personal floral adornments of the bridal party including the bride's halo of tiny pink rosebuds, were arranged and presented to the group by Mrs. Walter Precht, Everett, Wash., a lifelong friend of the bride.

Mrs. Glenn Davis, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march and background music during the reception tht followed. Miss Mary Jane Shearer, Twin Falls, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. G. H. Shearer, sang "Because" and "Yours."

Reception Follows

Mrs. F. R. Moody, Boise, a sister of the bridegroom, presided at the refreshment table during the reception. The three-tiered white wedding cake was flanked by pink tapers.

The bride attended the College of Idaho, where she was a member of Chi E. sorority. The bridegroom attended the University of Idaho, and was a member of Delta Tau Delta.

After a brief wedding trip to Sun Valley the pair will be at home in Boise. The bride's going away ensemble was a brown crash linen suit with which she wore powder blue accessories.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. A. J. Anderson, Mrs. B. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weaver and daughter, Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Emil DeMeyer and daughter, Pamela, and Mrs. H. Hustead, all of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. James Felton, Jerome; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Shearer and daughter, Miss Mary Jane Shearer, Twin Falls; Mrs. Inez Beamer, Twin Falls; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strickland and Mr. and Mrs. George Brewer, all of Buhl, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Precht, Everett, Wash.

Lucile Tipton, Arliss Lee Wed

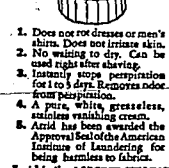

Mrs. N. P. Tipton, Twin Falls, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Lucile Tipton, to Arliss Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown Lee, Murtaugh, May 30 at the Christian church parsonage.

Rev. Mark C. Cronenberger officiated at the service. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother, and included the cake-cutting ceremony.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carter and daughters, Colleen, Barbara and Donna, Amarillo, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee are at home on a ranch near Murtaugh.

Religion Plays Role in Morale, Speaker States

Importance of women's work in the present emergency—maintaining family morale, and giving attention to religion as well as nutrition—formed the theme for the address of Mrs. Cora Schroeder, Filer, at a meeting of the Ed. and S. club yesterday afternoon. Fifty guests attended.

Joining the hostess club were presidents and other representatives of the several federated clubs of Twin Falls community, Mrs. Schroeder told in detail of the recent convention of federated clubs which she attended in Denver.

Setting for the meeting was the attractive garden at the country home of Mrs. C. B. Lindley. Iced punch was served by Miss Wanda Jordon, Miss Dorothy Hudson, Miss Betty Jacky and Miss Betty Mae Jones, following the program.

The girls wore pert military hats in keeping with the patriotic decorations of the refreshment table.

Mrs. F. R. Darling, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Schroeder, one of Idaho's leading club women, and Mrs. Dillard Requa, president, introduced the presidents and guests of the other clubs.

Keith-Sayre Nuptial

HAILEY June 23 — Miss LaVerne Sayre and Oran Keith, both of Ketchum, were married in Hailey by James Gilson at his home. Witnesses were Kenneth Sayre, father of the bride; Fred Sayre, grandfather of the bride and other immediate members of the family. They will make their home in Ketchum. She is an employe of the J. C. Penney company here.

J. S. Feldhusen Gardens Scene Of Unique Tea

Climaxing a year of successful projects, last of which was the third annual flower show of the week ago, Twin Falls Garden club members entertained at an attractive garden tea in honor of Jerome Garden club members and a number of other guests yesterday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. John S. Feldhusen, retiring club president.

Kimberly members of the club, including Mrs. Feldhusen, Mrs. Alvah Jay, Mrs. David Robertson and Mrs. C. B. Requa, were hostesses to 50 women at the meeting, last until fall.

Novel Appointments

Unique in garden tea appointments was the refreshment table, centered with a large glass bowl filled with vari-colored cold drink bottles surrounded by ice cubes and edged with shirley poppies to match the orange drinks.

Beside the table, a chipped-ice filled green and orange wheelbarrow held bottled drinks, which were served by Mrs. O. T. Koster, new club president.

The bottle opener which she used was an antique silver model, given to Mrs. Jay when the first Coca Cola bottling works was opened in Oklahoma many years ago.

Tall baskets of flowers made a striking background against the deep green shrubbery and trees for the refreshment scene atop the sloping lawn, and the blooming lilies in the pool at the foot of the incline formed a charming contrast.

Staff Installed

During the business session, new officers were installed by Mrs. Jay, including Mrs. Koster, president; Mrs. Hanley Payne, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Wilcox, secretary, and Mrs. Requa, treasurer. Highlights of the recent garden show were given by Mrs. Elmer F. Ross and Mrs. Koster.

Program, under direction of Mrs. H. R. Wagner, featured "Gardening for Health, Pleasure and Profit," and inspection of the extensive Feldhusen gardens further entertained the group.

Guests from Jerome included Mrs. Hubert Ricketts, Mrs. H. T. Laird, Mrs. B. Reynolds, Mrs. J. T. Ricketts, Mrs. L. W. Crundall, Mrs. W. F. Zahn, Mrs. W. H. Sturges, Mrs. H. N. Carry, Mrs. E. N. Snodgrass and Mrs. A. J. Nye.

Other guests included Miss Caroline Ross, Clarinola, Ia., who is visiting Mrs. Elmer C. Ross; Mrs. Van Wyngarden, Portland, Ore., mother of Mrs. H. T. Blake, and Mrs. T. D. Jones, Boise, mother of Mrs. Feldhusen.

Episcopal Church Has Annual Picnic

Seventy members of the church school of Ascension Episcopal church attended the annual picnic Tuesday at Harmon park, swimming in the municipal pool and enjoying the various playground facilities.

The boys and girls brought their own sandwiches and the church provided the other items on the menu. Mrs. George F. Sprague, Mrs. T. M. Robertson, Mrs. Orville Brooks and Mrs. E. Leslie Rolfe were in charge of arrangements.

Outdoor Supper Fetes Visitors

One of many courtesies arranged the past three weeks in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Langenwalter was the outdoor supper Tuesday evening in the attractive gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ball, 154½ Poplar. Pictured here, Mr. Langenwalter is frying a hot cake for Miss Hah Ball, young daughter of his hosts, while his wife, right, the former Miss Elizabeth Ellen Kyle, looks on. The Langenwalters, who have been visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Langenwalter, expect to leave tomorrow for their home in Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Langenwalter will be an instructor in the college of engineering at Cornell university. (Staff Photo-Engraving)

Joyce Thompson Marries Former Salt Lake Man

Simplification of details, in keeping with wartime, marked the marriage of Miss Joyce Thompson, Salt Lake City, formerly of Twin Falls, and LaRoy H. Michels, who is stationed with the United States coast guards at San Francisco.

The ceremony was performed at 9 a. m. today at Reno, Nev., and the bride was given in marriage by her father, W. A. Thompson, Salt Lake City.

Maid of Honor

Her sister, Miss Shirley Thompson, was the maid of honor. The bridegroom was unattended. He is the son of Mrs. Gladys M. Michels and John A. Michels, Salt Lake City.

The bride wore a rose silk dressmaker suit with hat to match and her other accessories were in navy. An orchid corsage completed her bridal attire.

When she left for San Francisco, she donned an English tweed three-piece suit with rust accessories.

The bride and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Salt Lake City, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Averett, and Miss Rosemary Sinclair in Twin Falls, prior to her marriage.

U. of U. Students

The bride was a Kappa Kappa Gamma and Spurs pledge at the University of Utah. The bridegroom is also a former student of the University of Utah.

Mrs. Michels was extensively entertained by Salt Lake City friends in the weeks preceding her marriage.

Lost Boy Among Events of Jolly Don Juan Outing

Mayor Joe Koehler took a day off "from the affairs of state," Charlie Edmondson got lost, and 14 members of the Jolly Don Juans club had a "whooperoo" time from 1:30 to 10 p. m. yesterday.

It was the first of a series of summer outings planned by Mayor and Mrs. Koehler for their nephew, Don Heller, Youngstown, O., and a group of local boys.

Wearing levis, sports shirts or dungarees, the boys arrived at the Rocky theater for the matinee; were transported from there to Kiwanis nook at Shoshone falls for the wiener roast and hamburger fry; climbed the craggy canyon walls and posed for motion pictures. Then they returned to Harmon park for a swim.

Charlie didn't have his swimming suit, so he sat by the side of the pool watching the sport for a while and then disappeared. His parents and the city police joined in the search, and eventually found him at home.

Fay Banes was chef for the day, and his son, Sam Banes, Long Beach, Calif., was among the guests attending. Accompanying Mayor and Mrs. Koehler to assist in "corralling" the youthful outlaws was their niece, Miss Charlotte Monnahan.

Many Guests at DAV Auxiliary Picnic Meeting

A number of guests, including several husbands of members, were present at the picnic this week at city park, arranged by the Women's auxiliary of the Disabled American Veterans.

Guests included Mrs. Clair Mathers, Miss Jean Grimaman, Mrs. Jennie Harral; Mrs. Edith Mitchell, who is visiting here from California, and Mrs. Beer, Eden, mother of Mrs. Roy Gordon.

A patriotic motif was employed in picnic table decorations, with a bouquet featuring the tri-colors of the United States and napkins in the same motif figuring in appointments.

Following the picnic, the women went to the home of Mrs. William R. Wolter where they spent the afternoon sewing bandages and bindings for the veterans' hospital in Boise.

Plans were completed for installation of new officers, headed by Mrs. Tom Harmon as commander, at a meeting July 14 at the American Legion memorial hall. Appointive officers will also be installed at this time.

COWBOYS SCORE THREE RUNS IN 9TH BUT CARDS WIN, 5-4

Green Limits Local Club to Four Hits; Chenard Yields Six

POCATELLO, June 25 (AP)—The Pocatello Cardinals repeated their one point victory over Twin Falls last night, dropping the Cowboys, 5 to 4. Ed Green, the Cardinal hurler, allowed but four hits, while Bill Chenard of the Wranglers gave up six.

With the score tied at 1 and 1 in the last of the fifth inning Pocatello unleashed its power and jammed four men across the plate before the Cowboys could clamp down.

The first man up, Doug Williams, was hit by a pitched ball. He advanced on Glenn Stetter's single and scored on Bobby Joratz' single. Stetter then scored on Steve Andrade's long fly-out to right field, Earl Peterson singled through the shortstop, Eddie Barr walked and Harold Paulson sizzled another through short, scoring Joratz.

Green also drew a free ticket, forcing in Peterson for the fourth run.

The Cowboys staged a last inning rally which netted them three runs and had the tying and winning runs on base with two out when Lane Shanks struck out.

Boise Held to Three Hits but Beats Reds, 9-4

OGDEN, Utah, June 25 (AP)—The Boise Pilots started out last night to win their ball game with the Ogden Reds by piling up three runs in the first of the first, and win they did, 9 to 4.

The thorough trouncing was spread out through the game with the last two points racked up in the ninth. The Pilots won on three hits, errors and walks helping them along.

The Reds brought Hugh Condit to the mound in the ninth, but the game already was lost and the best Ogden could do in their last bats was to crowd in one more run after racking up one tally in the first and two in the eighth.

Miss Jameson Hits Stride in Western Open

CHICAGO, June 25 (AP) — Betty Jameson really hit her old time golfing form yesterday, and as word spread around the Elmhurst course, the other seven survivors in the women's western open nervously agreed the Texas girl had become the traditional "one to beat."

San Antonio Betty, twice a national champion, rolled down the first nine holes today in 36 strokes, two under par, and thereby grabbed a 5-up lead on Mary Agnes Wall, Menominee, Mich. She took one of the next four holes and halved the others to crush Miss Wall, 6 and 5, and move into today's quarter finals.

Miss Jameson was grouped in the lower bracket with Dorothy Kirby, Atlanta, Ga.; Jeanne Cline, Bloomington, Ill., and Dorothy Foster, Springfield, Ill. Betty's immediate concern is Miss Foster, her foe today, while Miss Kirby and Miss Cline will tangle.

Larry Jansen in Hospital; Out For Rest of Year

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25 (UP)—Larry Jansen, young San Francisco Seal pitcher, apparently is finished with baseball for the season. Jansen was taken to the hospital Tuesday suffering from severe influenza and pneumonia, and has been running a daily temperature between 103 and 104 degrees.

Dr. Garnett Cheney said today Jansen must remain in the hospital at least two weeks, will be unable to receive visitors for 10 days and probably will not be in shape to return to the game this season.

Jansen won 16 games, lost 10 last year, but has failed to deliver this year, winning five and losing eight. He was knocked from the box in his last two appearances.

Jansen played with Salt Lake Bees two years ago and was one of the Pioneer league's leading pitchers. He was tabbed a major league prospect when he left the Bees.

Bees Finally Win, Defeat Russets, 7-3

SALT LAKE CITY, June 25 (AP)—The Hapless Salt Lake Bees finally won a ball game tonight from the Idaho Falls Russets, 7 to 3.

Ahead from the start, the Bees hammered home five tallies in the seventh to sew up the game, although the Russets came back in the eighth with a three-run rally that had all the appearances of the beginning of another nightmare for the Bees for a few minutes.

Southpaw Elmer Orella in the first inning gave notice he was out to win when he dropped the first three men up in one-two-three order.

The feature of the ball game probably was the Bees' first run which came in the first inning as Dino Giovacchini gained first on a walk and then raced around the remaining three bases when the Russets' hurler, Tony Klisura, heaved a wild pitch that bounded into the visitors' dugout.

Kogut to Wrestle Zimbalman In Main Bout of Jerome Card

The first professional boxing and wrestling card in 20 years will be staged July 4 at the Jerome county fairgrounds, it was announced today. The card, part of the Jerome Independence day celebration, will headline "Gentleman" Jack Kogut and Aaron Kimbalman in a two out of three fall wrestling match with a two hour time limit.

The main boxing bout will be a 10-round match between "Windmill" Pearce, Utah lightweight champion, and Lou Bland, Denver. The matches will start at 8 p. m. and are under the auspices of the Jerome Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce.

Sharman to Wrestle

Also on the card is a one-hour time limit wrestling bout between Hy Sharman, Salt Lake City, and Billy White, Omaha, Neb. Sharman weighs 180 pounds; White, 185.

Eddie Ross, 135, Sacramento, Calif., will meet Joe Garcia, 136, Seattle, in an eight-round semi-final boxing match and a four round curtain raiser will be arranged between two Jerome boxers, according to Dr. Arthur D. Garde, who will referee.

First Trip West

Kimbalman, 220-pound Jewish heavyweight, has been wrestling on the east coast and this is his first trip west. His home is in New York. Kogut, who tips the scales at 210 pounds, is one of the top Polish heavyweights in the country.

Sharman, who will appear in the wrestling semi-windup, has wrestled in Salt Lake City many times and is noted for his drop-kicking. "Windmill" Pearce, Springville, Utah, gets his nickname from his peculiar style, hitting his opponents with a flurry from both hands. Pearce weighs in at 175 pounds and his opponent, Lou Bland, at 178 pounds.

Dutch Harbor received its name from the legend that a Dutch ship was the first vessel to enter its bay.

Sport Squibs

By Bob Leeright, Pinch-Hitting for Hal Wood

Here's some more dope about two outstanding Pioneer leaguers, by way of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

One of the most amazing records compiled in the history of San Francisco prep school circles belongs to First Baseman Johnny Hernandez of the Salt Lake City Bees. Through four years of high school and American Legion ball, Johnny was never charged with an error.

His hitting had been so hefty that scouts who watched him overlook his smooth, consistent fielding, and it was not until the close of his fourth season, in 1940, that statistical minded newspaper men of 'Frisco dug up the fact that Johnny had never been guilty of a bobble.

During that span he had played first, in the outfield and pitched for five different teams, which makes his flawless fielding mark all the more remarkable.

In 1940, Hernandez led the Mission high Bears of San Francisco to the city championship and set a new school record with the bat by hitting .650. He scored 16 and drove in 24 runs for a total of 40 out of the 106 registered by his team for the season.

He was voted the most valuable player in the city schools and was rewarded with a two-week road trip with the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league.

Johnny definitely decided to give up outfielding and pitching in 1940, and when he reported to the high school nine as a first baseman, it looked like he would be a sub, for the 1939 guardian of the sack was back on the job and he had been named all-city player the year before.

But the tables were reversed, with Hernandez being the regular. His rival spent most of the season in the outfield.

The Brooklyn Dodgers landed Johnny when he finished school and started him at Valdosta in the Georgia-Florida loop last summer. But the "no error" star got off to a bad start, for he was charged with 12 boots in 48 games. With a batting mark of .290, he drew a release.

Broken in by the St. Louis Cardinals, Pitcher John Hetki is being cashed in on by the Cincinnati Reds at their Ogden farm, for the young righthander has established himself as a definite threat for the 1942 pitching crown of the Pioneer loop.

Hetki broke in under the Cardinal banner at Albuquerque in the Arizona-Texas league last summer. He had a good season, winning 16 games and losing 10. At the close of the season he was assigned to Ogden, switching his affiliations from the Cards to the Reds.

For several years, Hetki had ambitions to become a pitcher, but was without opportunity. He had been a shortstop and second baseman for four years in high school back home at Leavenworth, Kan.

Early in the 1940 season, his semi-pro club was up against it for hurlers. One of the chunkers was laid up with a sore arm and the other had left to join another team.

John had always shown a good strong arm. "I had always wanted to try pitching," he relates, "but I never had a chance. So when my manager came and asked me if I would pitch in a benefit game we had scheduled for the Red Cross, I jumped at it."

He scored a 2 to 1 victory for his team's first win in five starts and was assigned to regular pitching duty for the balance of the year. He won eight and lost three and had a strikeout average of 13 per game. As he went along, he developed a fine fast ball and exceptional control.

In his first year of pitching he worked 13 innings of an 18-round game, the longest of the season in Leavenworth. His team was trailing by three runs, tying it up in the ninth and neither side scored for the next nine innings, the game being called by darkness.

John, who is 20 years old, played in the famed Ban Johnson league of Kansas at the age of 16. In addition to baseball, he lettered in football and basketball at high school.

Buhl Golfer In Women's Semi-Finals

BOISE, June 25 (AP) — Mrs. Muriel Williams, Boise, 1941 women's golf titlist, plays Mrs. Gertrude Prilucik, Buhl, today in the semi-finals of her title defense.

In the other bracket of the semi-finals, Mrs. Cecil Jordan, Boise, meets Mrs. Harry Morton, also a Boise contender.

Mrs. Williams won the driving championship yesterday with a 210 yard smash, then went on to defeat Mrs. May Ven De Steeg of Nampa 7 and 6 and Mrs. Chloe Martin, Idaho Falls, 2 and 1.

Her semi-finals opponent beat Mrs. Paul Boyd, Boise, 8 and 7 and Mrs. George Orullian, Idaho Falls, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Jordan defeated Mrs. Myron Swendsen, Boise, 1 up and Mrs. R. S. Belknap, Boise, 6 and 5. She also tied Mrs. Harry Jones, Boise, with 24 in the putting contest.

Mrs. Morton's victims yesterday were Mrs. B. Thierrault, Boise, 6 and 5, and Mrs. Walter White, Boise, 2 up.

Rookie Backstop Hits 4-Run Homer As White Sox Win

CHICAGO, June 25 (AP)—Johnny Humphries, White Sox right-hander who authored four shutouts in six 1941 starts, reversed to his scoreless form yesterday to blank the Senators on eight hits while his battery mate, Tom Turner, helped out with a homer with the bases loaded. The score was 6 to 0.

Turner, who got the catching assignment after Mike Tresh was hit on the arm in batting practice, hit his four-run blow off Early Wynn after Taft Wright and Bob Kennedy singled and Sam West walked in the eighth inning.

Turner also singled and scored on a hit by Humphries in the second inning. Luke Appling's double and Joe Kuhel's single compiled the other run in the sixth inning.

Passeau Gains His 11th Win; Limits Phils to 4 Hits

PHILADELPHIA, June 25 (AP) — Claude Passeau chalked up his 11th victory of the season last night as he pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 3 to 1 triumph over the last-place Phils.

Rookie Earl Naylor, pitching for the Phils, gave the Cubs only eight hits, but Passeau was even better, yielding only four bingles.

Passeau had a one hitter for six innings, then gave up a run in the seventh on Dany Murtaugh's double and Rip Russell's wild throw to first on Ernie Koy's grounder.

Defending Champ Leads Collegians

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 25 (UP)—Defending champion Earl Stewart of Louisiana State university led 16 college golfers into the third round of the National Intercollegiate Golf tournament today after surviving the upset plague that beset the first two rounds of play.

Stewart defeated diminutive Johnny Ward of Syracuse, 1 up, yesterday by his superlative putting. Even at the end of the first nine, Stewart started sinking the long ones to get his slim margin of victory in the stretch.

Yanks Outhit, But Defeat Browns, 6-4

ST. LOUIS, June 25 (AP)—The New York Yankees took another step out of their slump yesterday with their second straight victory over the St. Louis Browns, 6 to 4.

It was a free-hitting affair with St. Louis getting the most blows, 15 to 12, but except for the fifth inning the Yanks never let the Browns get rough.

Joe DiMaggio had another good day, driving in two runs with two singles. In the first inning Frank Crosetti walked and DiMaggio brought him home with a hit after two were out. Then Charley Keller singled Joe to third and a passed ball by Rick Ferrell let him score.

Manager Luke Sewell and Second Baseman Don Gutteridge of the Browns were ejected from the game by umpires during an argument that followed Gutteridge being called out trying to steal second.

Southpaw Milner Hits Homer, Hurls Indians to Victory

CLEVELAND, June 25 (AP)—The veteran Southpaw Al Milnar gave the Athletics five safeties in three innings, then held them hitless for the last six today as the Indians registered a 9 to 0 win with 15 hits, including homers by Milnar and Les Fleming.

The Indians opened the scoring with a run in the second, on three singles. Les Fleming's eighth homer of the year added another tally in the fourth and Milnar's circuit blow heralded a four run splurge in the fifth, aided by three singles, a walk and Oris Hockett's double.

The Tribe added its final trio of runs in the seventh, off Herman Besse, with three singles and a double.

Armstrong Over Second Hurdle In Comeback Try

OAKLAND, Calif., June 25 (AP)—Henry Armstrong, still "Hammerin' Henry" but hardly resembling the perpetual motion fighter of a few years ago, is over the second hurdle on a projected comeback.

The stocky Los Angeles Negro scored a decision over Shiek Rangel, Fresno, Calif., welterweight, in a 10-rounder last night.

Rangel was unable to match the tornado of punches unloosed by Armstrong, who once held three boxing titles at the same time.

Cards' Flag Hopes Jolted, Lose Pair

BOSTON, June 25 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals' pennant hopes suffered rude jolts yesterday when the Boston Braves pulled out of a prolonged losing streak by sweeping a doubleheader from the second-place Cardinals, 6-2 and 3-1.

Jim Tobin who had dropped seven straight starts since he belted out three homers to win his last game on May 13, gave the Cardinals 11 hits during the opener. He managed to keep most of them scattered in all but the seventh inning, when Ken O'Dea homered after Stan Musial had collected his third straight single.

Paul (3,000 hits) Waner collected the 1,000th pass of his 17-year career off Howie Krist in the sixth inning of the first game. The Braves scored their first run off Gumbert in the fifth inning and then drove him from the box in the sixth by unleashing a three-run rally on that many singles, a pass and an error.

Lefty Bill Donovan limited the Cardinals to five hits while gaining his first win of the season in the nightcap. The Braves collected six hits off Ernie White but homers by Frank Demaree and Chet Ross provided all of the runs.

Donovan's hopes of making his first major league win a shutout died in the sixth inning when Marty Marion doubled and came around on an infield out and Frank Crespi's long fly.

Home Run by Haas In Tenth Inning Wins for Cincy

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP) — A tenth-inning home run by Bert Haas gave the Cincinnati Reds a 4 to 3 victory over the New York Giants last night after Frank McCormick had connected for his tenth round-tripper of the season with one on in the eighth inning to tie the score. Bucky Walters pitched the entire route for Cincinnati and allowed only six hits.

One of the blows off Walters was a two-run homer by Herbert (Babe) Barna in the fourth inning and the big rookie outfielder also drove in the Giants' other run in the sixth to give Hal Schumacher a temporary 3 to 1 advantage in his pitching duel with Walters.

Ted Williams' 17th Home Run Wins 1-0 Game

DETROIT, June 25 (AP) — Ted Williams' seventh inning homer, his 17th of the season, produced the only run Broadway Charley Wagner needed today to give the Boston Red Sox a brilliantly pitched 1 to 0 victory over the Detroit Tigers in a twilight game.

Wagner, gaining his seventh victory against five defeats, faced only 28 batters and, aided by three double plays, retired the last 25 in order. The Tigers put four runners on base on three singles and Jim Tabor's error, but none advanced beyond first.

The victory was the fifth straight for Boston over the Tigers and the eighth this season in 11 games.

BOHEMIAN TOWN RAZED BY NAZIS

LONDON, June 25 (AP) — The Czech community of Lesaty in Bohemia has been razed by the nazis on the accusation that the villagers hid parachutists involved in the slaying of Reinhard Heydrich, "protector" of Bohemia-Moravia, it was reported today in a Budapest radio broadcast heard by a Czech government listener here.

This was the second village wiped out by the Germans in vengeance for the death of Heydrich, the Germans having reported June 10 they had slain the male population of Lidice, near Prague, sent the women to concentration camps and the children to "educational" institutions.

350 Men Shot

About 350 men faced the firing squads in that village.

What happened to the Lesaty population was not disclosed by the Budapest broadcast, which quoted an official announcement in Prague newspapers.

The announcement charged the villagers with shielding from police the so-called "parachute agents" involved in the Heydrich plot.

Other phases of the purge of anti-axis Czechs continued. The Budapest radio said that 18 Czechs were sentenced to death at Prague yesterday and 12 at Bruenn. The charges were not stated.

Killed June 4

Heydrich died of his wounds on June 4. The nazis alleged he had been wounded by an anti-tank bomb of British manufacture.

Even before his death they started killing hundreds of hostages in reprisal. Last week they said two former officers in the Czech army were responsible, that they had parachuted to earth from a British plane, and that they were shot to death in a Prague church on June 18. Lesaty is in the Bohemian district of Chrudium, a predominantly agricultural community 70 miles southeast of Prague.

Usable Overshoes And Galoshes Not Wanted for Scrap

Usuable rubber overshoes and galoshes singly or in pairs should not be turned in as rubber scrap because permanent exchanges will shortly be set up by the OPA for the pooling and full use of such articles by the public, Asher B. Wilson, chairman of the Twin Falls county defense council, said today.

Wilson said that he had received word to this effect from J. D. Orr, chairman of the Idaho salvage committee.

Orr reported the President has requested that usable articles should not be turned in, a request which conforms with established policy of conserving usable goods.

Deferment Asked For "PM" Editor

NEW YORK, June 25 (UP)—When Ralph Ingersoll, 41, editor of the newspaper PM, appeared at his draft board yesterday for induction, he was notified to await action by an appeals board on a plea that he was "indispensable" to the newspaper.

A formal appeal to that effect was filed by Marshall Field, owner of PM. As a result the board withheld induction pending a decision.

Ingersoll was not aware of the appeal and was at the draft board at 5:45 a. m., ready to leave with other inductees for an army physical examination at Fort Jay, Governors Island.

He has two dependents but asked no deferment personally and made no appeal. He asked to be allowed to serve where he could "hurt the nation's enemies the most."

U. S. ACES SCOUT CELEBES ISLAND

MELBOURNE, June 25 (UP)—Allied planes have extended their reconnaissance flights into the heart of the Netherlands East Indies, with a flight to the Kendari area of Celebes island, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

Operating more than 850 miles from Darwin, the big Australian north coast base, the allied planes conducted their reconnaissance, which may result in allied attacks inforce, and fought off three enemy planes which attempted to intercept them.

It was the first time Celebes had been mentioned in MacArthur's communiques. To reach it the allied planes flew over Portuguese-Dutch Timor and other islands heavily infested with Japanese, including strong air force units.

Reconnaissance flights have been the main activity on both sides for the last four days, and it was indicated that one side or the other would strike soon in new, big attacks on the basis of information brought in by the scouting planes.

Former Hansen Boy Missing, Says Navy

HANSEN, June 25—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, Jerome, have been informed by the U. S. naval department that their son, "Buck" Smith, is missing, according to word received by friends here. The youth has been missing since the sinking of the U. S. S. Neosho in the battle of Midway, the government message said.

The Smiths lived here for 15 years before moving to Jerome.

Here Are Top Provisions in New Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Here are major provisions of the tax bill approved by the house ways and means committee:

INCOME TAXES

Personal exemptions lowered from $750 to $500 for single persons, from $1,500 to $1,200 for married persons; $400 credit for each dependent continued. Normal tax raised from 4 to 6 per cent, with 10 per cent earned income credit retained; surtaxes increased from 6 per cent on first $2,000 to 12 per cent. Beginning next January, 10 per cent of income in excess of personal exemptions and credits will be deducted from pay-checks to apply on taxes.

CORPORATION TAXES

Present excess profits rates ranging from 35 to 60 per cent raised to flat 94 per cent, with post-war credit equal to 14 per cent of net income which is subject to this rate. Invested capital and average earnings alternatives continued for computing "excess profits." Combined normal and surtax rates—applied on income not subject to excess profits taxes—raised from 31 to 40 per cent for corporations with income above $25,000. Specific exemption to which all corporations entitled raised from $5,000 to $10,000. Numerous provisions adopted for special hardship cases.

EXCISE TAXES

Taxes on beer, wine, whiskey, cigarettes, cigars, telephone and telegraph bills, pari-mutuel wagers, travel fares, freight and express transportation, and lubricating oil either increased or new taxes imposed. General sales tax defeated, as were proposals to tax soft drinks and to increase taxes on gasoline and transportation by pipe lines.

Spud Sales Widen, Grange Informed

Through the publicity and advertising endeavors of the potato advertising commission, the market for Idaho potatoes has been increased materially, C. G. Rice told members of the Twin Falls Grange and their guests last evening at the Odd Fellows hall.

Hollister Grange members were special guests and presented the program. Mrs. J. W. Pierce gave a reading, "Dorothy Dumbell Does Her Bit for War." A piano solo, "Tam O'Shanter," was played by Ruth Farrar.

Mrs. Erie Jones gave a reading, "The Missionary Box That Scandalized the Village." A musical comedy skit, "Because He Joined the Grange," was presented by Dale Kunkel, Evelyn Kunkel and Gertrude Talbot.

Chemurgy Offers Rubber Solution

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—Dr. William J. Hale, head of a chemurgy firm, testified before a house mining sub-committee today he could produce all the rubber the nation needs in a year if given $100,000,000, men and priorities.

The former organic chemistry professor at the University of Michigan, now consultant to the Dow chemical company and president of the National Agrol company, Washington, said he would set up about 100 plants—with two in each state—each turning out 45,000 pounds of butadiene daily from certain types of corn.

Another $150,000,000 would be required by the rubber industry to make the rubber from the butadiene, he said, adding that his synthetic product would make tires superior to those now in use.

It will consist of the Sheffield party, the army tank, official cars, escort of Boy Scouts and Cubs, the Boy Scout color guard, a sound car providing music and cars bearing the Minute Maids from Boise.

Parade Route

Route of the parade will be city park down Shoshone to Second avenue north; down Second avenue north to Second street north; on Second street north to Main; up Main to Third street south; then to Second avenue south; to Second street west; to Third avenue west to the Park hotel.

The joint luncheon will then follow under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. On hand will be leaders and members of the C. of C., the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, American Legion and other groups. The Sheffield party, Governor Clark, the army men, Mr. Viley and the Minute Maids with Mrs. Marion Citron Falk will be honor guests. R. S. Toffle-mire is to act as toastmaster.

First sale of war stamps and bonds by Sheffield will come at 1:30 in front of the Orpheum. The tank will be placed there during the luncheon hour. At 2:15 the tank will be moved to the 100 block on Main east and south for the first merchandise auction under the Merchants' bureau. Bidders will compete for the donated articles and will receive war stamps or bonds to the amount of their winning bids. The first auction starts at 2:30 and ends at 3:30.

Children's Auction

The tank will go to city park at the latter hour, where at 3:45 comes the children's auction of stamps and autographed stamp albums. At 4:15 the tank goes to the 200 block on Main avenue east and south for the second merchandise auction scheduled at 5:15 p. m. The tank then moves back to the Orpheum and the third auction will be staged at 7:30 p. m. at a place to be announced.

Russ Thomas, Jaycee president, issued a call this afternoon to Jaycee officers and directors urging them to attend the Friday noon luncheon.

Officials of the scrap rubber drive also issued a public call, this one directed to farmers and other south Idahoans. They urged that the farmers who come to Twin Falls to see Sheffield and the tank, and to buy war stamps and merchandise, bring their scrap rubber donations with them.

Last-minute survey of work done by the various chairmen in charge of events for Sheffield day, according to Chairman Warner, showed this afternoon that each committee chief has reported "all set to go."

Some estimates indicated that the day may bring to Twin Falls the largest throng since the visit of the original streamliner train a number of years ago.

Police Hunt for Robbers of Store

not wear a hat. He was "neat and clean."

The woman was from 25 to 30 years of age, light complexioned and was dressed in a dark suit. She had a "good amount" of makeup on. She was about five feet, 5 inches tall.

Gillette said that one of the checks stolen was for $15.35 and was signed by G. J. Thompson, payable to A. C. Mays. Another check was for slightly over $18 and was a Troy laundry check made out to Goldie Morrison.

Records at the police station show that this is the eighth armed robbery that has occurred here in the past several years. Prior to the robbery last night, all seven have been solved and the robber arrested and convicted.

HAILEY

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Summers, Nampa, returned to their home after several days' visit in Hailey. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Burrell and other friends and relatives.

Ralph Branse left Monday. He is an inductee into the service. Before leaving he was honored at a farewell picnic party Sunday. All members of the family were present and also a number of friends. The picnic took place at Federal camp.

Mrs. Paul Auxier, formerly of Ketchum and Sun Valley, was married last week to Cecil Smith, Carey. They will make their home in Carey.

Ed Lamb, former resident of Wood River valley, died at Nevada City, Calif., of a heart attack. He was buried at Orland, Calif. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Whitteker, and Mrs. Harriet Cramer, and one son, Edward, jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ost were in Hailey this week. They are from Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Critchfield and family and Mrs. Sadie Merritt, Stanley, were in Hailey Saturday on business.

Pete Daniels of the navy is visiting here with his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Daniels, a few days.

Bible school ended after a two-week session. A picnic was held at the Clarendon hot springs. Sunday a program was given in the morning at the Community church and a display of plaques and various articles was shown. They were a part of the program for the season.

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones, Mrs. Berniece Edmiston and daughters were in Twin Falls Saturday on business.

MARKETS AND FINANCE

WAR, TAXES DIM MARKET TRADING

Markets at a Glance

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—
Stocks mixed; price changes narrow.
Bonds irregular; some rails improve.
Cotton uneven; trade buying and July liquidation.

Chicago
Wheat drifted lower; hedging sales.
Corn about steady; fair shipping business.
Hogs steady; top $14.55; receipts slightly smaller than expected.
Cattle: Fed steers, yearlings steady to strong; bulls weak.

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Stock market buyers and sellers continued to operate warily today and leading issues held to a narrowly irregular course.

Bullish inspiration was lacking in the war news generally and even boardroom customers with plenty of cash were disposed to step lightly pending outcome of African and Sevastopol conflicts. The tangled tax program also provided few speculative or investment incentives.

Transfers approximated 200,000 shares.

Among stocks, Boeing was given a fair-sized lift when directors voted a $1 dividend, first payment for the company since the initial disbursement of 40 cents in December, 1937. Other aircrafts were only moderately responsible.

An isolated pusher was U. S. Distributing preferred which got up more than 2 to a new top since 1931.

In front at times were Chrysler, Consolidated Edison, N. Y. Central, Woolworth, Dow Chemical, Johns-Manville and U. S. Steel.

Lagging most of the day were American Telephone, Santa Fe, Allied Chemical, Sears Roebuck, American Can and Standard Oil (N. J).

Stamp Record Forecast for Sheffield Day

Twin Falls tomorrow will sell more war stamps in a single day than any city of a similar size in the United States.

This was the prediction of Ribot "Buck" Vallton, parade committeeman for Johnny "son of Tarzan" Sheffield day celebration, in asking the members of the Kiwanis club at their noonday luncheon today to cooperate in making the day a success.

Only Four Stops

Vallton pointed out that the boy movie star was stopping in only four cities in the intermountain area in his stamp and bond selling campaign. He said Twin Falls was selected because of its "enviable record" in the sale of stamps and bonds.

The guest speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon was Col. E. O. Walter, noted livestock auctioneer of Filer. He asked that the members of the club take more interest in the farmers in this area because "without the farmer we'd all have to fold up and get out of the state."

Livestock Future

Col. Walter cited the high place that Idaho holds as a livestock producer in the United States. He also asked the farmers to be encouraged in raising better livestock because after "Hitler has divested the old world of its livestock" the world will look to America to give it a new start." The United States will be the only nation left to meet this demand, inasmuch as Argentine livestock would not be qualified because of the hoof and mouth condition there, he stated.

The auctioneer conducted sales in 14 states last year and nine so far this year. He invited the members to attend the ram sale in Filer Aug. 5, which he characterized as one of the greatest in the United States.

In the absence of President U. N. Terry, Vice-President R. J. Schwendiman presided. Art Cederquist was program chairman.

Guests were Jack Thomas, of his father, W. W. Thomas; Dr. H. L. McMartin, county and city health officer at Phoenix, Ariz., of C. P. Bowles, and Corp. James Priebe, of Wilbur Hill.

Farm Worker at Hansen Injured

HANSEN, June 25 — Walter Sprague, Hansen farm hand, is resting easily at his home this afternoon following an accident yesterday on the Pete Link farm, in which he sustained several broken ribs, chest injuries and hip and arm bruises when his team ran away with a mowing machine.

The accident occurred while he was moving the machine from one field to another, under the direction of Mr. Link, whose sudden appearance in front of the team was believed to have caused them to become frightened and run away.

He was struck by the cutter bar, which was jarred loose when the team reared back into the barrow pit, but was able to extricate himself from the machine before the team broke and ran. The machine was badly damaged before the team was stopped.

Mr. Sprague was treated at the office of a Kimberly physician.

VIGOROUS

The telephone rang at 10:40 p. m. yesterday at the police station.

Giving a certain address, a voice said that there was a fight across the street from that address and apparently a woman had been hurt.

Two patrolmen dashed to the scene.

Today, in the result of investigation column on the police blotter, is found the following notation:

"No good—just a guy and a girl necking."

FRACTIONAL DROP IN GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, June 25 (AP) — Fractional declines, amounting to as much as ¾ cent at one stage were posted in the wheat market today.

The downward drift of the market was associated with further small scale hedge sales placed against commercial trade purchases of new wheat and selling attriuted to professional dealers. War news and continued congressional deadlock over the government's feed wheat selling program were disturbing factors. There were reports of better weather conditions in parts of the southwest, with harvesting resumed in some sections.

Wheat closed unchanged to ½ lower compared with yesterday, July $1.18 ¼, September $1.21-1.21 ⅛; corn unchanged to ¼ higher, July 86 ⅝, September 89 ⅛-¼; oats ¼ off; soybeans ½-⅝ lower: rye ⅝-⅝ down.

LONDON BAR SILVER

LONDON, June 25 (UP)—Spot and futures bar silver held unchanged at 23½ pence an ounce today. The Bank of England maintained its gold buying price at 168 shillings per fine ounce.

House Studying Tax Deductions

WASHINGTON, June 25 (UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr., said today the house ways and means committee is considering a last-minute plan whereby deductions of income taxes at source next year would be limited to five per cent instead of 10 per cent.

Under the new plan now being studied, the five per cent "pay-as-you-earn" tax would be applied entirely to taxes due on 1943 income. Under the plan already adopted by the committee at the treasury's suggestion, a 10 per cent withholding levy would have been applied half to taxes on 1942 income and half to taxes on 1943 income.

CAR STOLEN

Police records today show that a 1936 Dodge sedan, carrying Idaho license 8P-1619, was stolen in Nampa last night. The thief was believed to be heading into this section of the state.

THE MONEY RETURNED

CHAPTER XI

HUNTER stared at Bella Ballard.

She knew who got the $17,000, and knew who had it now!

"I took it out."

"Great guns!" Hunter Dent groaned. "What is this, anyway? Red, was that you?" How in the nation did you get the combination?"

"Hunter Dent, do you mean to sit here and pretend that you don't know I'm even alive? For years and years I have trotted after you like a puppy. I used to as a little girl let you put me on your horse, and you were almost a father to me. I've been so much underfoot that now I'm a young lady I have grown ashamed and tried to stay away from you, though not very successfully.

"So, one day when you were trying to open the safe and couldn't remember the combination, and took out your wallet and read it, and got down on your knees and said the combination aloud while you worked it, I was there in the door watching. You were so absorbed you didn't even notice me.

"So I remembered your old combination just to out-smart you some time. Maybe I had in mind laying a bet and taking your last dollar. I don't remember. But when Junior came in that night after he had got mixed in the hold-up—you see, Hunter, all that was doped up while I was out for a ride with Oliver, and so I didn't know anything about it until too late; well, I followed those blood stains. I went up to your office, because Junior would make right straight for you if he got into trouble. I opened the safe, and there was the bag of money. With my own little hands I removed it. I'd got wind enough of what was going on to know the money had to be restored.

"I told you I know who has it now. Would you like to know?"

"Who?" Hunter asked.

"The First National Bank. I took it there myself and turned it over to Mr. Temple. I asked him to see father, and the two of them worked out some way of going on your bond and letting you out. I couldn't tell them much. I couldn't say to Dad that Junior was the hold-up man. I just turned the money back to the bank and told them to keep their mouths shut until we could see a little further."

Hunter could only repeat, "So you did that."

"Yes, and I asked a man to marry me and he turned me down cold."

"Red, you're plain crazy! You and Tisdale are engaged to be married. He's rich. He's in on the Ballard fortune. What's more logical than you two should marry and keep the fortune intact? What am I? A kind of glorified hired man for your dad. Why, even the colts I raise go to him. The strain of prolific corn I develop becomes his. What chance do I have?"

SHE turned to examine him. Her eyes traced his features, dropped to take in his big athletic shoulders and chest. "You're young though. You seem healthy. You appear to have your original equipment of teeth, hair, and brains. I always admired your intelligence, Hunter."

"Thanks," he said with dry bitterness.

"Did it ever occur to you that I might be a good sport after all, Hunter? I mean your being poor has never worried me. I read stories and see motion pictures where the poor boy refuses to marry the wealthy girl because it will give him an inferiority complex; but I thought you might be above such petty things, Hunter. You've made yourself—gone through the university mostly on your own; become a scientific research man, you've created things such as that strain of corn. And you've only begun. Your whole life lies ahead of you. There is nothing to keep you from making a name for yourself that will be the envy of many men who only had wealth to start on—Ol' Tisdale, for instance. I wouldn't be afraid to start from scratch with such a man as you, Hunter. I'm betting on you. You remind me in lots of ways of Dad. He met a challenge. They made him mad and he showed them. Well, now I've told you. I thought perhaps you loved me, Hunter."

"God," he said, "I do love you!"

"I wouldn't have you now on a silver platter."

"Red, you drive me almost to murder!"

"We still have one of those many things to clear up."

"So we have!" Hunter said. "So we have. Look here, Red. Let me tell you how I have this doped up." He knit his brows, groping for words. "Let's start from the beginning. At one of the parties at your house Hank Temple let it drop that he had to get to the bank to see a shipment of money get out. Seventeen thousand dollars. It would have to be a private matter. Maybe only Hankins and his father, and the parties who were to get the money, know about the business. Hank didn't mean, perhaps, to let it slip. But it was between friends. All right. The gang is there, beats, and Hank has to go. They make their wagers. Suppose, just as a hypothesis, the Ghibarto twins make a wager no one there could intercept the messenger and take that roll off him. Or it could have been any one else present who bet. Junior, with a little too much under his belt as usual, took the bet up. The party broke, Hankins Temple dispatched the money by the messenger. The time was not far from midnight. Why the money had to move at such an hour, and in such a way, is not easy to explain unless you consider another thing or two.

"OKAY, let's consider them.

There is that ordnance plant scandal which has just broken. The older Ghibarto is involved in fraud against the government. Rascal. Like father like twins. The money is a bribe. Know about that wharf project which is just across the river from the old landing below Water Street? That is a part of this ordnance plant. Some one down there in the know was getting ready to talk. Ghibarto—and this is hard talk but we have to look things in the eye—and perhaps Banker Temple, and just possibly your dad, who usually has irons in all the civic fires, even in all the local pies, though I take for granted neither man knew exactly got caught with his pants down—had to get a bribe there to shut a mouth. Since it was secret it looked safe enough. The murdered messenger left the bank. He had to go on foot, part of the way in any case, because the street was closed down which he must hurry.

"But the Ghibarto twins, rascals like their daddy, saw a chance to pick up $17,000. Looks like a sure-fire setup. The gang don't dare talk. Kill the messenger and he can't talk. Might as well shoot Junior, too. Two more, nondescript and dark, did appear, and the fireworks started. Well, those were the twins. Why they didn't leave town when the plan flopped—they didn't figure on Junior really shooting back to keep the joke from spreading, and toting his hot lead like a true sport—is explainable when you figure that Junior won't talk; he may yet die without talking. Besides, the guy that runs looks guilty. So—"

Red, her face strange, let in the clutch and started off with a scruff of rubber. Her jaw was suddenly grim and set.

HUGE TRANSPORT PLANE UNDERWAY

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 25 (U.P.) — A giant military airplane with the cargo capacity of two box cars and the transport efficiency of a 30-car train is "far beyond the drafting stage" at Douglas Aircraft Corp., it was revealed today.

The mammoth ship and troop carrier will have a gross weight of about 125,000 pounds and a speed "considerably above" 200 miles an hour, the Douglas magazine "Airview" disclosed.

Since speed of the ship would permit it to make 15 trips while a freight train is making one, each plane would have the efficiency of 30 freight cars, it was pointed out.

Largest transport ship currently being turned out for the army is the C-54, a four-motored military version of the Douglas DC-4, world's biggest commercial airliner. The new plane more than doubles the size of the C-54, and is more than five times as efficient as present commercial airliners.

Marine Departure Scheduled July 8

No more enlistees will be sent to Salt Lake City for final examination and induction until July 8 from the local marine corps recruiting station here, Sgt. Russell Lippert, chief recruiter, said today. At that time, Lippert said he expected to send between a dozen and 15 recruits to Salt Lake City.

So far this month, the local office's record of acceptance at Salt Lake has been an average of one enlistee a day.

The latest recruits to be tentatively accepted are Gideon George Harr, 21, 106 Van Buren street, Twin Falls, and Sam Dave Dick, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dick, 296 Monroe street, Twin Falls. They will leave July 8.

Ken Gwin Reported In Aussie Hospital

CASTLEFORD, June 25—Kenneth Gwin, son of Lawrence Gwin, is ill in a hospital in Australia, according to a letter from another son, Bill Gwin, who is also in Australia.

Kenneth and Bill were graduated from the Castleford high school the same year, joined the service together, were together at Camp Lewis and were sent to Australia at the same time.

Kenneth married his childhood sweetheart, Miss Helen Peterson, a few months ago. Mrs. Gwin retained her job in a bank in Buhl.

ROTARY'S LEADER ADDRESSES CLUB

GOODING, June 25—Rotary governor, Bishop Rhea, Boise, made a surprise visit at the last meeting of the Gooding club, and gave a brief report on the Toronto convention. He also discussed the rubber situation, and urged complete cooperation in the scrap rubber drive.

R. M. Robertson, president, announced that the Gooding Seed company had bought $100 worth of salvage rubber for the Rotary-sponsored Boy Scout troop.

Alex Watson, chairman of the Gooding county salvage rubber drive, spoke on the rubber situation and announced that one cent per pound was being paid for salvage rubber in every town and precinct in the United States. He said that it was "very essential" to turn in rubber now.

Adam Schubert announced that the Schubert theater would give any Boy Scout a month's pass for bringing in the greatest amount of rubber. The Boy Scouts are to take their rubber to the Gooding Seed company. He also announced a month's pass would be given to any individual bringing in the most rubber to Gooding.

William Bryan, chairman of the Gooding county salvage committee, gave a short talk on the salvage program and its set-up in the county and state. Walter Raby, representing Rotary on the salvage committee, made a report of the activities to date.

War stamps were won by M. A. Williams.

Special guests included Mans Coffin, A. I. McMahon and Sid Smith, Shoshone; Frank Swan, Eugene, [illegible] and Rev. Lauriln M. Wahlquist, new Methodist [illegible].

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

what is America Fighting for?

Equal Opportunity for ALL!

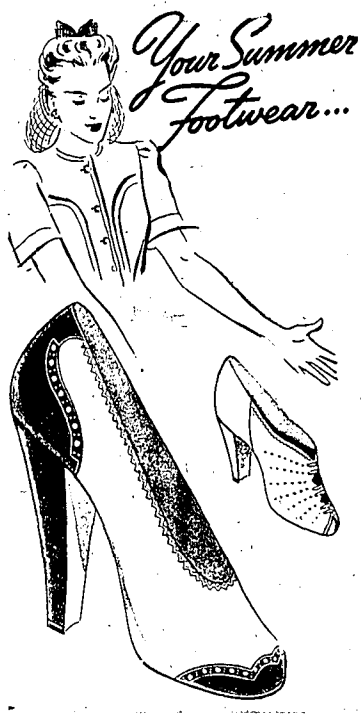

(One of the Essentials of a Democracy)

Deep in the breast of every American boy flames the light of hope and ambition. Equal opportunity to "make his mark" is one of the many American principles our country will ever fight to protect.

American fathers have shown their sons that—in our country—individual initiative has brought success time and again. Throughout our country's history, the thousands of great Americans, who, by their own efforts, raised themselves high in America's state, professional and business life repeatedly illustrate this truth. In America—as nowhere else—every boy, rich or poor, has that cherished privilege of making his life worth while in the field of endeavor he chooses!

Equal opportunity for all . . . the American ideal of free enterprise . . . the American way of life! Those things have made America great. Those principles will see America through to Victory!
